GANG LEADER IS EXECUTED

PLAN TO FLY BREMEN ON TO NEW YORK

Will Enthuses Over Progress Aviation Makes

(Special To The News)

HAGERSTOWN, Md., April 19—To give you an idea of what private aviation is advancing to, I left New York yesterday morning at 8 o'clock against a head wind in Fred Stone's new plane with his private pilot Campion. Fred is over 50, yet he has learned to fly his own plane. Say, have you been reading about that Claremore, Okla., boy, Payne. In that walk, trot and single-foot derby from Hollywood to Hoboken, he led them into Claremore Tuesday, which, by the way, was half way. When they all saw the town they didn't want to leave. Yours for home talent.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

New Castle may get a glimpse of the annual balloon races this summer. Pittsburgh is planning to be the centre of attraction, and have the annual races started from that city this summer. Such being the case, there is a likelihood of most of the balloons coming over New Castle as they usually drift northward.

One of the interesting sights of New Castle along about dusk or a little later, is to stand in the vicinity of the great cathedral building, and watch the line of lights flickering along the crest of the valley on Atlantic avenue. At times there are upwards of a hundred moving lights that can be seen moving in a long string along this highway, giving a most striking affect. This coupled with the lights made by our great tin and steel industries in the valley below give a picture that could be duplicated in very few cities of America. It's a common sight to New Castleites, but it's one that makes an impression upon visitors. Pa Newc has learned.

Some of the protruding steps on Mercer street sidewalks still remain. They should be removed at once. The sidewalk space has been narrowed considerably in the widening of the street and the protruding steps are a hindrence to pedestrian traffic that must be removed.

New Castle continues to be designated for more conventions of statewide importance, the latest being the announcement of yesterday that the credit bureau men of the state would meet here in May. New Castle is one of the best equipped small cities of the state to take care of any kind of conventions these days, and the fame of the city is spreading broadcast. Keep up the good work.

Modern improvements will never cease. Pa Newc was rather skeptical that city garbage could be burned day after day at a furnace without the use of any coal, but after an investigation a News man informs him that such is actually the case, and that New Castle is saving at least 1,000 tons of coal annually by use of the new garbage incinerators recently built.

Workmen are razing the walls of the First United Presbyterian church, which burned during the holidays. Now only one of the towers remains, and almost all of the bricks have been taken out of the walls. At yet, the exact site for the new church has not been named.

Sidewalk inspector J. L. Moseley gives warning that sidewalks in this city must be put in good condition, and that if the work is not done by order of the property owners, the city will require that it be done. All of which sounds just right to Pa Newc.

And at The Castleton, the telephone operator spilled Pa Newc another earful of her woes. This grief comes when she is doing her daily two and three dozen: that is, waking up the guests who want to get on the job early. You know, there are two calls, the first, or "riser," and the second, or "clean up." It is on the second call when all the fun hap-

CLARKE CITY, Que., April 19.—The first definite and official information as to the plans of Baron von Huenefeld and Capt. Herman Koehl, of the German trans-Atlantic plane Bremen, was received here today by radio and dog sledge from Greenely Island, where the famous ship landed.

Baron von Huenefeld, in a statement to International News Service, revealed that the flyers are still determined to reach New York in the Bremen.

Repair Bremen.

"After the arrival of Aviator Charles A. ("Duke") Schiller at Greenely island it was determined that Major James E. Fitzmaurice should fly back to Murray bay with Schiller for replacement parts so that the Bremen could be repaired," said the baron. "We decided to repair the undercarriage and put a new propeller on the plane and then the three of us would continue our flight to Mitchel field.

"Fitzmaurice did not desert us. There was no misunderstanding. He merely returned to civilization from our lonely outpost to get spare parts for the machine. Capt. Koehl, Dr. Louis Cusinier and the mechanic of the Schiller plane decided to remain here at Greenely island with me when Fitzmaurice hopped off for Murray bay. I hope that Fitzmaurice will be back this evening or tomorrow. I think the repairs can be made

DILKS KEEPS UP WITH MARATHONERS

By LELAND C. LEWIS
International News Service Special Correspondent

MIAMI, Okla., April 19—C. C. (Cross-Country) Pyle's bunion derbyists took a fleeting glimpse of Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri today after they pushed out of here for Joplin, Missouri, their forty seventh control, thirty four miles away.

Andy Payne, youthful Oklahoman, retained first place at the start with an elapsed time of 287:42:22 for 1,721.6 miles from Los Angeles. Thirteen minutes, sixteen seconds behind him was Peter Gavuzzi, bristle bearded Britisher, who covered the fifty-two miles from Chelsea, in 6:48:23, one hour, eight minutes and seven seconds ahead of Olli Wanttinen, 96 pound New York Finn.

Seventy Six in Race

Louis Perella, Albany Italian-American, romped in third in 8:16:37, thus retaining his place among the ten leaders. Wanttinen's remarkable recovery from a blistered toe that threatened to put him out of the grind earlier in the week, was evidence of remarkable stamina of the seventy-six survivors in the grueling 3,400 mile grind, more than half of which has been completed.

Roy McMurtry, one-armed Indianapolis youth who entered from Newhall, Cal., continued to command attention by finishing fourth.

Earl Dilks, New Castle, Pa., ran yesterday's lap in 14:05:08, for an elapsed time of 425:31:52.

By GEORGE E. DURNO
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The defense rested suddenly in the criminal conspiracy trial of Harry F. Sinclair today without putting the oil man on the stand as expected.

The defense also failed to place in evidence the 150,000-word deposition it took from Former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall, who is charged with conspiracy with Sinclair in connection with the leasing of Teapot Dome.

Immense Addition To Bank Building Ready About July

Lawrence Savings And Trust Company Building To Have 140 Rooms

7-STORY STRUCTURE BIG ASSET TO CITY

Largest Office Building In Western Pennsylvania; Magnificent Banking Rooms

From the way work is progressing, it is expected that the main banking room and the offices of the new addition to the Lawrence Savings & Trust company's building will be completed and ready for occupancy July 1, according to a statement made this morning by Louis Haug, local contractor, who has charge of construction.

Seventy new offices are to be placed in the new addition which will supplement the offices in the older part of the building, making the total number of rooms 140. The magnitude of the work may be estimated when it is stated that the completed building, new part and old, will be 180 feet long and 58 feet wide, seven stories high. This, of course, does not include the annex, in which are located the travel department of the bank and second story offices.

Immense Banking Room.

"I am sure that the Lawrence Savings & Trust company's building will rank with the most modern in the state when it is completed," says Mr. Haug. "The main banking room will be 180 feet long, the entire length of the building. In the rear there will be vaults—many vaults. All of them are here now. On the main floor there is a new safe deposit vault which contains 1750 boxes. Then, in the basement, there are three book vaults, one cash vault and two storage vaults.

"Italian marble columns are being used throughout the main banking rooms. On the mezzanine floor will be the bookkeeping department. A skylight will be so arranged that artificial light will not have to be used during the day time.

Entrance of Bronze.

"Another feature of the new building will be the main entrance, which will be of solid bronze. An entrance will lead through the lobby to the

Union Township School Board Lets Contract To George W. Lusk

WORK WILL START ON NEXT MONDAY

Classrooms, Auditorium, Gymnasium And Other Rooms Will Be Added

General contract for the new two-story addition to the Scotland Lane school in Union township was awarded to George W. Lusk of New Castle at a meeting of the board of directors of the township at the school Wednesday evening, April 18, the figure at which the contract was let being $49,984.

Work on the new addition will be started at once, according to Albert Thayer, architect, who stated that Mr. Lusk would start work on next Monday so that the building may be completed before the opening of school in the fall.

Award Other Contracts Later.

Contracts for the heating and plumbing and wiring of the building was not let at the meeting held last night but will be let at some later time. It was thought it best to get the general contractor started as soon as possible. The other contractors will not be able to do their work until the building is well along.

It was decided at the meeting last night to complete the entire new addition and not only a part as was considered some time ago. This decision was based on the fact that by next year almost the entire space of the proposed addition will be needed

It is probable that the committee, in conjunction with the members of the board of trustees, will meet soon to discuss the matter of locating the new building. The new church will be erected on the north hill.

The congregation's old church was destroyed by fire last New Year's eve.

Find Bullet-Riddled Body Of Salesman In Canal Near Doylestown, Pa.

OTHER MYSTERIES MAY BE SOLVED

(International News Service)

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., April 19 — Following the recovery of the bullet riddled body of William Harold Dunstan, 32 year old salesman, from the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company's canal, 15 miles north of here, state and county authorities today set about the task of finding the motive for the murder. Solution of this crime officials believe may solve three other murder mysteries in this section of the last few years.

Other Mysteries

Recalling that the body of Lieut Elwood Gainor, of the Lancaster police force, was found a year ago near Sharon Hill, Delaware county, not far from the home of Calvin E. James, 26, who is under arrest in the Dunstan case, police today quizzed him about the Lancaster murder.

Police point out that the murders of Gainor and Dunstan are similar in many details. Both were apparently slain by bootleggers.

Police also are grilling James in the mysterious murders of his uncles, Robert and James Erwin, on their

Investigate Story Told By Convict He Killed Pastor And Mrs. Mills

(International News Service)

EL RENO, Okla., April 19.—Elwin F. Allen, 28, serving a sentence in the Oklahoma penitentiary for forgery and transferred here for trial on a burglary charge in this county, was held incommunicado in county jail today while authorities awaited an expression from New Jersey officials on his nine page confession that he murdered Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills near New Brunswick, N. J., September 14, 1922.

County Attorney W. P. Morrison and Sheriff T. C. Shacklett, to whom the confession was made, said they had nothing on which to base an opinion of Allen's sincerity except that his descriptions of the principals in the Hall-Mills murder and the later trial, tallied strikingly with pictures which the officials secured for purposes of comparison.

Held Part of Confession

Allen informed the authorities he was making his confession to "get something off my conscience," according to his story. He is the son of American parents but was born in Mexico. He served a term for mail robbery as a boy in the Meriden,

Charlie Birger, Known As "Scourge Of Egypt", Dies On Gallows Today

GANGSTER GENERAL IS UNUSUALLY CALM

Stoically Waves Hand To Huge Throng Gathered In Jail Yard For Execution

(International News Service)

BENTON, Ill., April 19.—Charlie Birger, "scourge of Egypt", went to his death on the gallows here at 9:51 a. m. today for the murder of Mayor Joe Adams of West City, Ill.

Birger was led from his cell at 9:45. He walked the short distance to the gallows unassisted, and once upon the wooden structure, waved his hands to the vast throng that had gathered to see the "scourge" in his last minutes on earth.

State's Attorney Roy Martin and Sheriff James Pritchard approached him and said a few words. Birger assumed an air of gaity which the strain in his face belied.

Fails to Sleep

Not once during the long night had Birger closed his eyes. When dawn came he was asked if he wished anything to eat.

Yeah," drawled the gangster general. "Yeah, gimme a couple ounces of carbolic acid."

When it came time to lead him to the gallows Birger, as if with a great effort, drew himself into a semblance of composure. He waived assistance in walking up the scaffold steps.

The noose was adjusted about his neck and the execution robe was fastened about his small, lean body.

The trap was sprung at 9:51 and he was pronounced dead at 9:58.

A gust of wind and a glint of sun and a graying shadow along the edge, a flash of green on a bare brown bow, and a rustle of wings in the thorny hedge. A bit of a breeze that is from the south, and flock of gray geese upon the wing, some youngsters begrimed from their marble game, all these portend it is coming Spring. But the sign I know that has never failed, the sign that we get ere the first of May, is the one that clinches the weather's doom, it's the baseball season's opening day. Not the opening day in the other towns, but the day when the Pirates return to Pitt, it's the one official beginning of Spring, and this my friends can be classed as it. The Pirates open in Pitt today, and the sun is bright and the sky is blue, a day for the poets and baseball fans, the weather is right, it's just forty-two.

Uniform Exams For High School Pupils Of State

State-Wide Program To Be Followed In Endeavor To Find Right Subjects

In order to find an answer for a problem which is facing many colleges and universities today, namely: To equip themselves and to provide the right kind of subjects for the new students, the presidents of 48 colleges in Pennsylvania, in conjunction with the Pennsylvania State Department of Education, have prepared an examination which all high school seniors in the state must take on May 7 and 8.

According to Frank L. Orth, principal of the local high school, the heads of the different colleges in the state and the Department of Education have been studying the matter of uniformity in high school subjects for some time, and this test is being given as one means to an end—to make the subjects in the high schools of the state as near uniform as possible.

The required examination, which will necessitate two days to take, was announced to the seniors of the local school this morning.

Every student will be required to take the examination in English and history and then will be permitted to select three other subjects to be examined in.

Mr. Orth of the local school states that over 44,000 seniors in the state will take the examination.

This uniform examination, which is being financed by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, will enable the schools of the state to compare themselves with the other institutions.

The seniors who will take the examination will be carefully watched for several years to come by high schools and by the colleges which they enter. In this way the schools can determine their weak and their strong points.

All seniors who take up work after graduating from high school will be asked to send in a report of their progress every so often.

In this way, with the colleges working together with the high schools, a more uniform course of study can be formulated in the high schools, providing for the exact subjects which are required for college work and thus enabling the students to enter the higher schools of learning prepared to do college work.

in a day or so that we may be able to hop off on Saturday."

Terrible Conditions.

The baron said that the last half of the journey was made under frightful conditions, with fog so thick that nothing could be seen. He sat in the back of the plane while Koehl and Fitzmaurice took turns at the controls.. He slept at intervals and in his waking moments killed time by writing poetry.

"It was Fitzmaurice who first discovered land," said the baron. "He told Koehl and we set off flares to see if we could get any response. The flares lighted up the air beneath us and we saw that we were flying over a dense forest.

"Koehl made out the lake and we descended. That was about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Despite the perils and the hardships of the long flight we felt sure all the time that we would succeed. First we ran into adverse winds, then rain, then fog, then a gale of wind, fog and snow combined. The worst troubles were off the grand banks of Newfoundland—a district known for years in shipping circles as the graveyard of the Atlantic."

Surprise Visit.

The baron told of the pleasant surprise he and his companions felt when Schiller arrived in his plane on Sunday. In the meantime the flyers were not lonesome. A number of persons had crossed Belle Isle strait from the Labrador mainland to visit them.

Baron von Huenefeld paid wonderful tribute to his two companions, saying that they showed the utmost courage throughout the trip. They were cheerful and never once lost hope. When the landing was made Koehl and Fitzmaurice were nearly blind from straining their eyes thru the fog in an effort to descry land.

Parts For Plane Enroute.

QUEBEC, Que., April 19.—Spare parts for the repair of the trans-Atlantic plane Bremen passed through Quebec today enroute from Montreal to Murray bay. Major James E. Fitzmaurice is awaiting the parts at the Murray bay depot and is expected to hop off with them for Greenely island as soon as they arrive.

The spare parts consisted of an under carriage of two wheels, a box of tools and a drum of oil. Local experts believe it will be 10 days before the Bremen can leave Greenely island for New York.

May Leave Monday.

QUEBEC, Que., April 19.—Major James E. Fitzmaurice will depart for Greenely island in a plane of the Canadian Transcontinental Airways company either late today or tomorrow, the Irish trans-Atlantic flier informed an International News Service correspondent here via telephone from Lake St. Agnes.

Fitzmaurice also stated that he thought the repairs on the Bremen would not take more than two days. He declared that if weather conditions permitted, he was certain that he, Captain Herman Koehl and Baron Ehrenfried von Huenefeld would be able to fly to New York from the ice-bound Greenely island on Monday.

He revealed the probable route the fliers would take to their ultimate goal, Mitchel field, L. I. He said the Bremen would fly southwest down the Belle Isle straits to the gulf of St. Lawrence, then follow the St. Lawrence river to Quebec, where, without making a landing, they would veer to a direct southward bee-line course to Mitchel field.

INVESTIGATE STORY OF CONVICT HE KILLED PASTOR AND MRS. MILLS

Connecticut reform school, he said. Portions of Allen's confession which named a Newark, N. J., dentist whom he said paid him $5,000 and gave him an automobile for committing the murder, were withheld by County Attorney Morrison pending word from New Jersey.

The gist of the confession, submerged in a mass of detail, is that Allen held up Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills as they sat in a parked car, compelled them to drive into a corn field and there shot both. After carrying the bodies to the spot where they were later found, in what he termed "Plum Lane" Allen drove their car to Vernon, Del., and burned it, he said

The confession further referred to a woman accomplice who Allen says was his common law wife and who, he says, held Mrs. Mills and prevented her escape while he was killing the clergyman. Allen refused to name the woman, saying that he left her at a little town in Vermont, soon after the murder and had not seen or heard from her since.

It isn't crookedness that makes men rich, son; it's smartness. And smart ones also get rich honestly, without risking jail.

pens. Then answers to her entreaties are many and varied, some couched in language which Pa Newc quails at. And through it all, the telephone operator says, she must grin and have that voice with a smile.

How well New Castle puts things over can be judged from the reception accorded Clarence D. Chamberlin in this city and in the city of Columbus, Ohio. He was in Columbus during the present week, and was greeted by an audience of 200. In New Castle, in three meetings nearly 5,000 heard Chamberlin.

Without much eclat, another step in the expansion and development of New Castle, that is in keeping with the city's status, will take place this week, the formal opening of a public library branch on the South Side. Under the direction of Miss Alice Sterling, city librarian, and a capable board of directors, New Castle's public library progress during recent years has been steady and most commendable.

The crowning event of the Senior Hi Y club will take place Friday evening when the annual Girls' Night banquet is to be held. John C. Leonard, boys' secretary at the Y. M. C. A., who has worked so hard to make the boys' clubs at the Y the success that they are, promises that this will be the best function that he has helped to arrange. But the trouble is, he says, to get the boys to confess all and come out en masse with their girl friends.

Street paving has started again. On Sheridan avenue, steam shovels are working, and trucks are hauling the dirt to low lots in the city. Soon this street will be paved, and another mile or so will be added to the paved streets of the city.

Pa Newc attended an interesting conference the other day at which Berny Hanlon, secretary of the Motor Club, told just why the Marines were in Nicaragua. "You see, they are after the Sandino wood control. Nicaragua is the only place in the world where Sandino wood may be found. Mahogany is common, but Sandino wood is very scarce. So we do not want our concessions to fall into other hands."

One of Pa Newc's friends tells this one. It seems that he was coming down the hill, escorting an entirely new and strange girl. He looked back when he heard a familiar patter of feet, and there, ont three feet distant, was his "steady" bearing down on him under full sail. "Well, that is when to be nonchalant," he mused to us.

On of the first visits of the stork to Lawrence county in an airplane must have happened on last Thursday when Chamberlin and the other aviators were hovering over the farms between New Castle and the aviation field on the Harlansburg road for at about that moment a little lamb was born on the farm of Daniel Floyd, near the aviation field. The newcomer is of registered Hampshire stock and has been named Chamberlin in honor of the noted aviator who was the guest of the community at the time the lamb was born.

While the entire $50 has not yet been used up, some 45 messages have been sent out of the local Western Union office to the president, urging further world court activity, according to Manager Mardis. Some days ago Arthur White deposited $50 to prepay messages to the president favoring world court activity. The 45 messages have used $22 and the balance is still in the Western Union office awaiting use.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The D. A. R. "blacklist" fight was sidetracked today at the 37th Continental Congress of the organization.

SAVING STATE MONEY

There is little difference between dollars. A dollar of state money should be spent as economically as a dollar of personal money, but unfortunately this theory does not always hold good in government.

In the Session of 1927 I presented a resolution which provided that stationery for members should be printed, not embossed or engraved. Not a big thing perhaps, and yet it meant a saving to the state of about $30,000.00. The spendthrifts in the House of Representatives protested that $30,000.00 to the State of Pennsylvania was not much, but their stationery was printed and the state saved the money.

There are yet too many leaks in expenditures. If a few more of them can be stopped, there would be no valid reason for vetoing the Inheritance Tax reduction measure which I presented and which passed both houses.

There is little difference between dollars and if nominated and re-elected for the second term, I expect to assist in plugging some other financial leaks which are draining the taxpayers' money away.

THE RICKENBACKER MEDAL

CONGRESS has been asked to award the congressional medal of honor to Capt. Edward V. Rickenbacker of Columbus for brilliant work in the air service in France during the World War. There is no question as to the remarkable work he did, the notable accomplishments to his credit are on the records of the war department. He is credited with 25 official victories in the air with airmen from the Central powers. He displayed genius, daring and brilliant generalship in these contests and won first place among all American air service men on duty in France.

For some reason men who were in combat forces and not given quickly these medal distinctions. Records of the war department prove the brilliant work done by many but, for some reason congress passes them by when special honors are being distributed. That has been the rule for many years. Honors are still being handed out to men for work done in the Indian wars of three score years ago. Recently in Great Britain a medal of honor was given to a veteran for a daring bit of work in 1859.

These medals are the flowers of appreciation of the nation and should be given to the living, not held back and given to descendants, or awarded to a veteran with only a few days to live, declares the Ohio State Journal in expressing a sentiment that will find widespread approval. The records of the war department show what Eddie Rickenbacker did. It, in the estimation of congress, his record justifies the award of the medal, why not make the award? His comrades who fought with and near him know his exploits, his daring, his narrow escapes. They know he took every chance offered and did his part brilliantly. Men who have done less have been given the medal. In the case of Rickenbacker it looks as if consideration and action were very much belated.

CLEAN-UP TIME IS HERE

SPRINGTIME is the time of new things, when the old and decadent give way to nature's new birth of foliage and plant life, and all the world puts on a new raiment.

Spring also is the clean-up season, when man's habitation should be made to harmonize with nature.

Where there is filth there is nearly always disease. Disorder is accompanied by waste, danger and decay. Dirt and disorder are the greatest enemies to public decency, health and safety.

A few clean and orderly homes in a select residence district can never safeguard the entire community. A single filthy home, dirty backyard, or a stagnant pool may easily become the source of an epidemic of fatal diseases that will sweep a city. A trash pile may start a general conflagration.

Every thrifty housewife knows the need and the joy of household cleanliness. She has a general housecleaning twice a year, when she changes her furnishings, but she keeps her home immaculate all the time. No semi-annual nor "annual bath" for her home!

Every individual should be as proud of his city and his habitation and its environments as the most immaculate housekeeper is proud of her home.

THE LIVING DEAD

AMONG the wise homilies delivered by the late Chauncey H. Depew was this:

"One of the great crimes which shorten life is indifference. As one loses interest in his church, in his political party, in his club, in his friends and acquaintances, he dries up, and the grave claims one whom no one wants or laments.

"The two most fatal phrases, and the two most common, are 'What's the use?' and 'Why should I?' A hungry and needy world answers both with open opportunities for service, helpfulness and good fellowship."

There is an ancient teaching in India of three human qualities—"Tamas" or indifference, which is deadly; "rajas", which means mere activity or strenuosity; and "satva", the highest, which means wisdom gained from experience.

The indifferent man can hardly be said to have any experience at all. His body lives; his mind and soul are as if they were dead.

It's an ill wind that blows a man's own horn.

All play and no work shows Jack a blame fool.

"Others" can't see the expense for the pleasure.

If every day was Sunday there would be no insomnia.

It is true that men wake up and find themselves famous, but as a rule the awakening comes decades before the fame.

The only thing more senseless than giving a modern bride a cook book is giving her a baby book.

Some women are so excitable. Just the other day an East New Castle wife threw a skillet at her husband as he went out the front door to start his day's work and threw a kiss at the cat which was trying to climb up on the table.

There are on display now in the News office windows a pair of Banderillos. These things look pretty and gay, but when a bull fighter shoots them into a bull in the shoulders the bull sure does cut up some didos. We got these things at great expense ($3.10, f. o. b. New Castle). We got them so people could see them. They have a barb on the business end that rams into the bull and it's just like getting a fish hook into your hand. It has to be cut out. It sure is a contraption of the devil himself and the object of this thing on earth is to make a bull fighting mad—and believe us when it lands on a bull he fights with everything he has to fight with, bellering included.

"There is a momentary feeling of something like independence and territorial consequence when after a weary day's work a man kicks off his shoes, thrusts his feet into slippers and stretches himself. Let the world without go by as it may; let kingdoms rise and fell, so long as he has the wherewithal to pay his bills, he is for the time being the very monarch of all he surveys.

TODAY'S STORYETTE.

A lumberjack with a broken leg was taken to a hospital for treatment. After the leg had been set the nurse asked him how the accident occurred. He replied:

"You see, Ma'am, it was this way: I was skyhookin' for the Potlatch Lumber company and I had only one ground mole. He sent up a big bule butt and she was a heavy one. I saw yer yaw and yelled to him to give her a St. Croix, instead of which he threw a sag into her and gunned her and that broke my leg."

"Yes" the nurse replied "but I don't exactly understand."

"Neither do I" said the lumberjack. "The darn fool must have been crazy."

A woman representative from Massachusetts and a Republican guided the Veterans Hospital Building appropriation for fifteen million dollars. This is the first time a woman ever headed such a big measure in the United States congress. And what a wonderful cause it was for. It will help the soldiers of the World war in a way they should be helped and it is so appropriate that a woman should have the honor of doing the great work.

REPLIES TO MERCHANT WHO WON'T ADVERTISE.

An answer to the merchant who claims he does not have to advertise to draw customers to his establishment is contained in an editorial appearing in the Jackson (Cal.) Dispatch recently.

The editorial said in part:

"One of the most discouraging conditions that a newspaper man runs up against is the non-advertiser who says 'Everyone knows my place of business and can come to me when in need of my goods, therefore why should I waste money on advertising?'

"Of course the newspaper man might say in rebuttal, 'Everyone in this community knows all that happens here so what's the use of reporting the news; what's the use in printing a newspaper?'

"If the community can get along without a newspaper it can get along without a number of other things. The adults are educated and can teach the children, thus doing away with the need of schools. The parents being religious can train the younger ones in the creeds, thus doing away with ministers and churches. People can loan their money to one another and thereby eliminate banks. They can swap their old clothes or learn how to make home-spuns thereby greatly reducing expenses and actually putting the clothing merchants out of business.

"All trade is based upon a desire for goods. Necessity is mostly but an augmented desire. Advertising has the function of reminding people of their requirements but its greatest function—a prime factor in all progress and prosperity—is the creating of new desires; thereby stimulating trade and production and making for the greatest possible degree of employment."

The sheriff of Fayette county is making a strenuous effort to find hacksaws concealed in the jail and also a handle for a saw made from a mop. A mop handle itself is no mean weapon in the hands of a prisoner bent on escape. The sheriff is doing a mighty good thing in our humble opinion.

Earthquakes in Mexico.

(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

Professor Coryllos asks the United States to help "end turmoil in the Balkans".

America should tell Professor Coryllos that when the Balkans want to end the turmoil they can do it. Until then it will not be the business of the United States to end it for them.

The artist Frost drew an old farmer starting to educate a young bull calf and harnessing himself and the calf in the same yoke. As he went downhill, dragged by the calf, the farmer said: "Stop us, somebody, darn our fool souls".

The Balkans can stop running downhill to destruction if they want to stop.

The German and Irish fliers insert the words "thank God", or "by the grace of God", in every message describing their safe landing through fog and storm across the ocean after 36 hours of danger.

The professional atheist, unwilling to believe anything that "has not been proved to him", would find his opinions changing, in a big earthquake, or above the ocean in a fog.

Norway has gone back to the gold basis, the 17th country on earth to do so. That basis is more or less of a financial fiction. There is not nearly enough gold on the earth to take care of its "gold basis" currency. Imagination does a good deal of it.

This country, it is said, produced last year less gold by tens of millions than was actually used in art and manufacturers, quite apart from any currency needs. If you could make gold artificially, and commercially, you'd get rich, unless your secret were known and gold demonetized.

Severe earthquakes shook southern Mexico Tuesday in Oaxaca and elsewhere. Several towns are believed destroyed and a sound like a cannon shot was heard from the hilltop of Texepec before the shaking of the earth began.

Tremors were felt as far as Mexico City and doubtless many will connect this earthquake and others recently with the religious trouble in Mexico.

Nothing could be more gratifying to the deeply religious mind than a powerful earthquake, terrifying the enemies of religion. Unfortunately modern earthquakes do not discriminate and shake down buildings on the just and the unjust.

Governor Al Smith has decided not to attend the Democratic national convention at Houston, because it would be better taste not to go. His friends believe that it isn't necessary, inasmuch as he is practically nominated at this moment.

Countess Stanislaus De La Rochefoucald bet on zero and 17 at Monte Carlo's roulette table and won 375,000 francs.

Early next morning she invested the money in a villa, wise lady, and says she is through with gambling.

Thousands of poor geese will try to imitate her, and the cold-faced croupiers that serve the bank will take in many times 375,000 francs.

Human beings despise the poor fish that swallows the hook with a tempting worm on it, and swallows the same kind of a hook.

Senators denounce the high price of books.

Mr. McKellar, from Tennessee, says "novels worth 'two bits' cannot be bought for less than $2 . . ."

The price of novels is not so important. But the high cost of books containing positive knowledge, that would enable uneducated millions (including many college graduates) to educate themselves, is disastrous.

That a book should be sold for four or five times what it costs to produce it is as bad for the publisher and for the author as for the reading public.

When will American business, big generally, learn that sales with small profits, as shown in the automobile industry, are most profitable?

BRAINS

Col. Robert I. Rees, of the Southern California Telephone Company, announced the other day that that company was on the lookout for brains. College trained brains, if you please, and young ones.

Colonel Rees knows whereof he speaks. During the war he organized schools for the soldiers of which on the date of the Armistice the total enrollment was 178,000 men, while 75,000 had completed their work.

He established a university and many schools in France regularly attended by 287,000 men.

He is co-operating with many of the largest universities of the country and has spoken to thousands of students. His talks before students have helped to swell the stream of new employees that pours each year from the colleges into the telephone company's organization.

He was presented with the Distinguished Service Medal and was made a member of the Legion of Honor by France for his war services and he is now a member of the National Research Council.

It cannot be too often impressed upon the young man that his prospects and his worth to society depend upon his brain power.

As the world progresses and mechanical inventions improve, hand power means less and less. The untrained man is being slowly but surely crowded off the earth.

Most of us are intellectually lazy.

What did you do, for instance, last Sunday morning, besides lying in bed and reading the Sunday papers, both of which pastimes are a mere frittering away of the intellect?

Every one should do some intellectually hard work every day, attack some problem that will require brain usage.

The main thing to do is to get something you like even if it is only a hobby, something upon which you can exercise your brain, as your value to the world will largely depend upon the way you use that.

Time was when big corporations were in search of robots or some such workers that had nothing to offer but their physical ability. More and more they want men who can use their brains. The hand with the brain behind it is worth much more than the hand alone.

The greatest enemy to production and efficiency is stupidity, and like all brain power the way to get brain power is to use your think tank.

Work it and work it hard.

Have some meaty problem on hand constantly that requires your fullest intellectual ability.

An alert, quick and dependable mind is of infinitely more value to the world than willing hands.

Even in running a machine, the intelligent workman is worth more than the stupid one.

Tomorrow—Nudity.

Printers who do job printing have many old customers who wish certain things put into type and preserved thereafter in rainbow colors upon card, paper or book.

A tired-looking man entered the office of a small firm of printers and approaching the manager, said:

"I want a list printed. Suppose you write it down as I tell you."

The manager made ready, and the other said:

"Yes, I'm sure I locked the front door. Have you got that?"

"Yes, but I don't understand."

"Never mind; don't interrupt till I have finished. Are you ready?"

"I turned out the light in the bathroom."

"All right; I've got it."

"The kitchen windows are fastened."

"Yes."

"The kittens are in their basket."

"Yes."

"No, I do not smell smoke."

"Yes."

"No, that is not our dog barking; it's the one next door."

"Yes."

"Well, I think that's about all. You see, my wife asks me those questions every night, just as I am getting into bed, and if I had a printed list I could show to her it would save lots of trouble. Besides, it injures my lungs to answer them. Have the list printed as soon as possible, please."

TWO WORLDS

There is a big world filled with men,
Mountains and rolling seas,
And majesties the poets pen,
Strange plants and curious trees,
And here are lands where monarchs rule,
And things far off I learned at school.

The morning paper brings to me,
The tragic news and quaint
Concerning men I never see,
Of villain and of saint,
But save the passing smile or sigh,
Little concerned with it am I.

They say I cannot dwell apart
From this great world of things,
That I am of it brain and heart
And one with far off kings.
But scenes which I shall never see
Never become a part of me.

My World is but a tiny space
Wherein I move about,
It is a long familiar place
Where certain children shout,
And certain summer blossoms grow,
And every plant and bird I know.

My world is peopled not by kings
But neighbors kind and true;
My mind is filled with countless things
Which yesterday I knew,
For each of us, two worlds there are:
One where we dwell, and one afar.

IN NEW YORK

The longer one knows New York the more one is impressed by that phenomenon which is often remarked by travelers; the smallness of the world. I am constantly meeting old friends from everywhere on the streets in elevators and in hotel lobbys.

A rather interesting coincidence occurred recently just as I stepped off the elevator on the 22nd floor of the Times building where my office is.

A group of young women piloted by man was looking down into Times Square enjoying the panaroma of the "Crossroads of the World." I thought an accident had happened or that one of those trick aviators was trying to perch on our window-sills again. I inquired the cause of the interest at the window.

"I'm just showing these Kansas girls the town" said the man.

"Step into my office won't you?" I ventured. "I keep open house for Kansans at all hours."

The man is Guy E. Jarrett who operates a property shop in the theatrical district. A property shop is a place where sets and things used on the stage are made and sold. Mr. Jarrett came from Holton, Kansas, 15 years ago and is a regular Broadwayite now except that he still speaks the Kansas language.

The girls are Janice and Paula Hiatt, Vera Snyder, Pauline Harris and Vera La Munyon all dancers in a vaudeville act and all from the same dancing school in Wichita.

You may be sure there was a pleasant time swapping yarns of the home town, trading impressions of New York and tracing mutual acquaintanceships. For it's not long since I came from Kansas and there is no danger of my ever acquiring the Broadway manner of speech. A real westerner never talks like a New Yorker though I have heard (more's the pity!) several of them who have tried to imitate that enunciation in their daily conversation.

Among the New Yorkers who remain steadfast in their devotion to the home towns and the home place I find southerners in general most notable. Seldom does a native of Alabama, Georgia, the Carolinas or the Virginias become a real New Yorker. He remains a southerner, resident in New York. He loves the south and he doesn't try to put away his memories or his soft and pleasant speech. On the other hand I believe the native of Arkansas is more readily absorbed into the life of the big city than any other American I have observed. You can hardly tell the difference between a native New Yorker and an Arkansawyer who has lived in the big town ten years.

Wife Of Former Governor Writes Protest Letter To Governor Fisher

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 19.—Mrs. Gifford Pinchot has written two letters to Governor John S. Fisher protesting against the activities of state employes in the campaign of Louis T. McFadden for congress, it was learned at the governor's office today. Mrs. Pinchot is opposing McFadden for the Republican nomination to congress from the 15th district.

In the absence of the governor who will not return to Harrisburg until the eve of the primary next Tuesday, Mrs. Pinchot, was informed by his office that her complaint will be called to his attention. The governor is making his annual tour of state institutions in the northwestern section of the state.

According to reports in Harrisburg, Commissioner of Fisheries N. R. Buller who is a resident of the district is one state official who is active in the McFadden fight. Director of Personnel A. Mrs. Kresge Denies Husbands Charge

NEW YORK, April 19.—Mrs. Doris Mercer Kresge, former wife of Sebastian S. Kresge, millionaire chain store operator, today denied her husband's allegation that she demanded $10,000,000 to bear a child to him. The allegation is contained in Kresge's Michigan divorce complaint.

"He never wanted any more children," she said. "He already had five by his former wife."

Mrs. Kresge, who is reported planning to sail for Europe on May 26 after her divorce from the five-and-ten man becomes final, told of a time when, she said, Kresge complained against having strawberries on his table out of season because they were expensive.

Make Reports Of Auto Mishaps On Streets Of City

Number Of Collisions Are Reported To Police; Some Damage Done

A number of traffic accident cases were reported to the police over Wednesday night and this morning.

John Pearson, Pulaski, R. D. No. 1, reported Wednesday that he was driving east on West Washington street at the P. & L. E. crossing, when a small boy got off a street car. Mr. Pearson attempted to stop his machine, but having an artificial limb, his foot slipped when he went to put on the brakes and the car went about two feet beyond the open street car door. The boy was knocked to the ground. He got up and declined to give his name. He apparently escaped injury.

Marquis Taylor of R. D. No. 7, reported that he was driving a car of the Stone Malt company on West Grant street at Norris Way, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license U 8093, turned from North Jefferson street and west on Grant street in front of his car and was making a left hand turn into Norris Way without a signal, when his machine hit it. Both cars were damaged.

Lawrence Cameron, Edenburg, R. D No. 1, reported Wednesday that he had his machine parked on South Jefferson street, in front of Becks' floral store, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license V3570, parked in the same place, backed out, hit and damaged his machine.

Carl H. Wilson, 1030 Beckford street, reported today that he was going east on East Washington street, near Apple Way, when street car No. 346, operated by M. E. Bair, going in the same direction, hit and damaged the rear of his machine.

Luigi Aiello, 425 Friendship street, reported today that he was driving north on North Mill street, and making a left-hand turn into Grant street, when the car of Clarence Beulke, New Castle, No. 5, going north on North Mill street, collided with his machine. Both were damaged.

Reeves Declares War On Nuisances

C. H. Reeves, street department head, announced today that he was going to stop, if possible, the habit of people allowing newspapers and similar refuse to blow about the streets of the city. It is very annoying to the public, he stated, and also an evidence of poor housekeeping on the part of the city and persons responsible would be arrested.

He also stated that on viewing the alleys of the downtown district, he has discovered that property owners have in many instances occupied a considerable part of these narrow traffic centers for building up obstructions around cellar windows or air holes.

He proposes having city council take action, requiring these openings to not only cut down to the street level but also made perfectly safe against possible accident on the part of the persons required to walk thru the alleys. This will also apply to alley entrances where steps are used and jut out into the alley ways. He proposes that all such raised obstructions be eliminated to provide all possible passage space in the alleys.

Marathon Race Starts At Noon; Boston Is Goal

(International News Service)

ASHLAND, Mass., April 19.—With a brightening sky overhead and a stiff breeze at their backs 240 of the 286 runners in the American marathon started for Boston at noon today from in front of the Marathon Inn at Hopkinton.

For the Twenty-fourth time George V. Brown of the Boston Athletic Association fired the starting pistol.

With the exception of Frank Zuma, Millrose A. A., New York, who did not appear, all the favorites were in the getaway.

At the read of the pack was Clarence Demar, the veteran and favorite to win and at his side was Joie Ray, the Chicago mile champion.

Conditions for the race were generally good, the showers of the forenoon having ceased.

ENJOYS GLORIOUS HEALTH; GLAD TO INDORSE KONJOLA

Young New Castle Lady Says New Medicine Ended All Her Health Troubles

MISS SYLVIA COOPER

Seavy Photo

This surprising new medical compound, Konjola, which the Konjola Man is explaining in person to large crowds daily at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., has not only become the sensation of this city, but is also the talk of cities and towns throughout this entire section. For instance, just the other day Miss Sylvia Cooper, 1204 School St., New Castle, made the following report about Konjola.

"I had been a sufferer for years", said Miss Cooper, "trying first one thing and then another, before I ever knew there was a medicine like Konjola, and now since I got this new compound it has ended years of constipation for me and my stomach trouble is gone.

"The worst thing about my case was the awful constipation pains that came over me. I couldn't eat a meal without suffering. My food seemed to sour and ferment, causing loads of gas to form and sharp pains around my heart. I was also subject to heart burn that lasted for hours. Because of the constipation my system filled with poisons and I never could get rid of them. Although I tried strong laxatives, they never gave me any relief. All during the day I would have awful dizzy spells that felt as if a thousand needles were sticking in me. Besides these troubles my liver was sluggish and this caused my complexion to be almost yellowish. I didn't know what it was to get a good night's rest and I always felt dreadful in the mornings.

When the Konjola Man reached New Castle I decided to try this medicine. It turned out to be just exactly what my system always needed. Before my first bottle was gone I could feel an improvement in every way. I continued with the medicine and now I can enjoy meals without suffering afterward. The indigestion spells do not come and I never suffer from gas bloating, heartburn like I used to. Konjola regulated my bowels and I have free movement every day. The dizzy spells have disappeared and my complexion has cleared up. In every way I feel like a new person. I sleep soundly all night long. . . .

"Konjola has done more for me than anything else I ever tried and I will always be glad to recommend it to others who suffer."

The Konjola Man is at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Blame Food Scarcity For Death Of Deer

(Special To The News)

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 19.—Although the past winter was generally considered an easy one for game, reports received by the Board of Game commissioners show that in a number of counties deer starved to death because of the scarcity of feed.

In Clearfield county twelve were reported found dead in one locality. Seven of them were small bucks which had been born late last summer or early in the fall. Because of their birth too late in the season the bucks were undersized at the beginning of the winter and could not survive when food became scarce.

Birth of the fawns late in the season is said by experts of the commission to indicate that deer in that section have become too plentiful.

Reports of dead deer being found, many of them small, and all apparently from starvation, also have been received from Huntingdon and Centre counties.

In a number of other counties where deer are plentiful game protectors have reported some mountain sides entirely denuded of food growths during the winter. Thousands of young pines have been destroyed which had been planted by the Department of Forests and Waters. In sections where this occurs the department has issued orders against planting of seedlings.

Says United States Tries To Intimidate Nicaragua Citizens

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 19—The pact under which the United States agreed to supervise the 1928 Nicaraguan elections was characterized as an agreement obtained by force, intimidation, coercion and alleged bribery by Senator Blaine (R) of Wisconsin in the senate Wednesday.

Blaine made this statement in introducing an amendment to the naval appropriations bill which would prevent the United States from making any hostile moves towards foreign nations without the consent of congress.

The Diary of a New Yorker

by CLARK KINNAIRD

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

NEW YORK, April 19. — Variegated notes of a reporter covering the biggest beat in the world:

An Irish Catholic cook prepares the kosher food the orthodox Dr. A. S. W. Rosenbach, world famous bibliophile, eats.

A Times Square drug store supplies bicarbonate of soda in a glass of water, without charge.

Dr. A. A. Brill, noted psychoanalyst, is a boxing fan.

The author Henry Ford knows best is Hamlin Garland. The friendship arose out of the automaker's interest in colonial and post-colonial customs, to which Garland has given considerable attention in his novels.

Marve Berne, former prima donna of German opera companies and of civic opera companies in the U. S., now is in the chorus of a Broadway musical comedy.

The hobby of a prominent Wall street operator is cigar making. He imports tobacco suited to his taste, rolls his own, ages the finished product for several months in special containers, and of light brown color.

"Crashing the gate" is a popular New York sport, and the urge to get into smart, exclusive social affairs is as great as to see athletic events free. Hosts and hostesses at balls or parties at which several hundred guests are expected, are put to considerable trouble to devise ways and means of keeping out the uninvited.

What do you want to know about New York? Address C. K., New Castle News Bureau, 2200 Times building, New York, enclosing stamped, self-addressed envelope for reply.

The fact that members of the "400," who now largely inhabit apartments rather than mansions, do most of their entertaining in hotels, has made it easier for the gate-crasher. One gentleman in evening dress looks like another to hotel help, or footmen hired from an agency for one evening. And invited guests have a way of taking advantage of a host or hostess by bringing along uninvited friends to help drink the liquor. A hostess who sends out 200 invitations and arranges for food and refreshments for a like number, frequently finds her hired ballroom crowded with 350, and her refreshments inadequate. Of course, on such occasions it is the gate-crashers who eat and drink the most, leaving the invited guests hungry and dry.

Park avenue hostesses aren't the only ones who suffer. Whenever Harlem society arranges a grand ball, efforts are made to keep the time and place a secret, so that the black dancers will not be crowded off the floor by white visitors. And at social affairs of a Tammany district organization, a rubber stamp of a tiger's head is affixed to the hands of all invited guests. Any man or woman found in the hall without a stamped hand is promptly and unceremoniously thrown out.

Pittsburgh Police Must Be At Least 23 Years Of Age

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 19.—The minimum age for those seeking jobs in Pittsburgh's uniformed police service is now 23, while the maximum is 35, according to a ruling made recently. Age limits for firemen will be slightly lower but will follow the same general tendency.

Holding that youths of 21 are immature and unsuited either physically or mentally for police work, several officials favored establishing a minimum age of 25, but this step was believed to be too radical and a compromise age of 23 was agreed upon.

John W. Cox for County Road Improvement Aid

If nominated and elected to the office of General Assembly I will use all my influence for road improvements.

I consider roads the most essential thing confronting the rural tax payer today.

Taxes are on the increase and some farms in Lawrence County will not rent for enough to pay the taxes and insurance.

Townships must have state assistance or they cannot maintain the gravel, ash and slag roads.

The state will help to construct these state reward roads but does not make any provision for maintenance.

I would favor setting apart one cent per gallon of the gasoline tax for this purpose.

Student Writes Of Recent Tour Of News' Plant

High School Class Makes Visit To Plant Of New Castle News

In a recent issue of the News, Miss Florence Mitchell, a member of the senior class of the senior high school and a student in the cost accounting class there, told of a trip which the accounting class took through the Shenango Pottery some time ago.

Last Saturday afternoon the class visited the plant of the News and saw how the papers were made, from the receiving of news through to where the papers come out of the press.

Miss Mitchell has written an account of this trip and it is as follows:

The cost accounting class of the senior high school, under the supervision of Mr. H. D. Book, took their second trip of the year, going to the New Castle News, Saturday, April 14.

First we were told by Mr. Bart Richards, reporter of the News, where the different materials had been obtained to build this large and beautiful building. He then told us how they received the news from other cities by a machine called the telegraph printer. He told us the different processes which the news must go through before it is printed. In the composing room, one of the great places of interest in the News building, Mr. Richards and some of the employes explained to us how they set up the different types for the evening papers. We were then taken to the press room where we saw the press in operation. It was amazing to see how many papers can be printed in a short time. Little do we realize when we receive our papers what different steps these 36 pages of news go through before entering our homes.

About 35 students went and everyone seemed interested in what Mr. Richards told them. The cost accounting class wish to thank Mr. Richards and the employes of the News for their courtesy to the class.

To Send Fuel For Bremen To Island

(International News Service)

MURRAY BAY, Que., April 19.—Three hundred gallons of highly volatilized fuel for the Bremen were awaited here today from Montreal for further shipment to Greenely Island.

The fuel, a special type containing a high benzol content, was shipped from Montreal last night.

The propeller of the F-13, the sister ship of the Bremen, was also expected here late today. The propeller was taken off the Junkers plane immediately after its arrival at Curtiss Field, L. I., at six o'clock last night and immediately dispatched to Montreal to be re-routed here by way of Quebec.

Track Employes Wearing New Belts For Protection

White belts of the well-known Sam Brown type, have been adopted by the railway department of the Penn-Ohio system for the protection of track employes who have to work in the streets, amid traffic at all hours of the day.

The belts were adopted to make the men conspicuous and thus minimize the possibility of automobilists failing to see them. The belts have been in use for a short time only, but already seem to be accomplishing their purpose of adding safety to the workers, for it has been observed that the men wearing them are quickly noted by passing motorists who thus are prepared to avoid striking them.

The need of some such protection is evident from the fact that every now and then one of the track workers engaged in sanding rails on a hill, or greasing or sanding curves in the track, is struck by a passing automobile and injured. One P-O employe recently returned to work after six weeks in a hospital as the result of such an accident.

25 YEARS OF PERFECTION

"Lookit—that car we just passed is a mile behind us already"

OUT on the great proving grounds of the nation's highways—where driver vies with driver and car meets car in all kinds of friendly contests—today's high-powered Chandler is the victor of victors!

It is absolutely spectacular the way today's Chandler outsprints its contenders in traffic—and outclimbs them on steep hills—and outruns them in straight going.

And the reason is anything but a secret: Chandler has further increased the power of its Pikes Peak engine principle—in its new Sixes as well as its new Royal Eights.

You'll find, too, that any new Chandler you drive is much the easiest car to control you ever knew. And the reason for this is Westinghouse Vacuum Brakes—three times safer than any kind of mechanical or hydraulic brakes that depend entirely upon muscular pressure.

Easy, too, to lubricate the chassis. Just push a plunger and Chandler's "One Shot" System automatically lubricates the car from end to end. No fuss. No time out. Money saved.

And just look around and compare other cars with Chandler for beauty. See how sumptuously Chandler endows its new Sixes and Royal Eights with all the trappings and trimmings of elegance. No skimping, no cutting corners anywhere.

Chandler is Chandler-built—through and through—in Chandler's great $10,000,000 plant. Built step by step with zealous care in strictest conformity to the hard and fast rules of quality and accuracy.

Don't buy a new car without seeing and driving today's Chandler. Thirty magnificent models—$995 to $2195, f. o. b. factory—and the finest cars $995 to $2195 can command.

"It's so easy to soak clothes whiter —with this safe hard-water soap" says Mrs. J. H. Preston, 116 N. Crawford Ave.

"THE Rinso way of washing is so easy!" says this woman, one of the many users of Rinso right in this locality who have written us.

"All I have to do is soak the clothes overnight in the thick, safe Rinso suds, rinse thoroughly in the morning, and they're ready to be hung out—without any hard rubbing. You don't even have to boil! Yet they always turn out even whiter than if they'd been boiled for hours.

"Rinso is just right for our water. It goes much farther than other soaps and no softener is needed. That's why I use it for all my housework such as dishes, floors, sinks and woodwork!"

The secret is in the suds!

Rinso's suds are different—thick, creamy and lasting even in the hardest water. Dirt, grease, grime and stains soak right out—with no hard rubbing.

Rinso asks no help of bar soaps, chips, powders or softeners. Alone it washes clothes whiter. Why, even boiling isn't necessary; clothes come from the washer or tub so sweet and gleaming!

This way saves the clothes—Rinso contains nothing to harm your finest cottons or linens. Then, too—clothes aren't scrubbed threadbare. The grimiest edges come snowy with little or no rubbing. Saves the hands, too; they are in hot suds so little.

You get your full money's worth when you buy Rinso, the granulated hard-water soap—it's so compact. Just feel how weighty the package is. For best results follow the easy directions.

Washing machine makers endorse it

Rinso is the ideal washing machine soap. Try it and see for yourself why 32,000 demonstrators of washers use this hard-water soap. See why the makers of 32 leading washing machines highly endorse it.

Guaranteed by the makers of Lux, Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

WOODPECKER TURNS TEASE

"Well! Well! Look who's here!" The strange voice came from beneath the boy, and Peter peering over the edge of the fence saw on the rail below a red headed woodpecker. Kingbird spied the red head at the same time and grew angry at once. Ruffing up his feathers he flew at the newcomer in a fury, but Woodpecker was too quick for him.

Before Kingbird had reached him Woodpecker had flopped over to the other side of the rail and Kingbird hit his beak against the fence. Over the rail and over the rail, and over the rail again whirled Woodpecker, just as a boy would turn handsprings over a bar, until it made Peter quite dizzy to watch him. And although Kingbird flew at Woodpecker from first one side of the fence and then another, not a single peck at him did he get.

Woodpecker evidently thought this game of Bo-peep lots of fun and it looked as if he was going to keep it up all the rest of the day. Mrs. Kingbird was distressed.

"Now, mate dear, do stop flying about like that. You will wear yourself all out and if Purple Martin should suddenly appear upon the scene you would have to fly away from him. You never could fight him now.

"You know perfectly well that Woodpecker is only teasing you. He might stop if only you would not pay any attention to him! I told you so! You nearly broke your wing. You can't catch Woodpecker—you have tried to, too many times before. You will hurt yourself and for what? He is just fooling and it is silly of you to get so mad. There, now! He has flown away, like the good fellow he really is. I am glad of it. Another minute and you would have no breath left in you. Come, dear, sit down beside me for a while and rest."

WOODPECKER FLOPPED OVER AND KINGBIRD HIT HIS BEAK AGAINST THE FENCE RAIL

Rather shamefacedly Kingbird perched by his wife's side.

"That was a foolish thing for me to do. I really like old red head but somehow every single time I see him start that race over the rail it makes me wild, and to save my feathers I can't help going for him. I have never caught him yet, and I should hate to peck him even if I could. Ah! here comes a gad-fly. Pounce! Um yum! There, wife, take him. One less insect to pester the horses this summer!

"Hello! Do my eyes deceive me or is that a caterpillar I see crawling along on that vine? It is, as sure as I am alive. You have made a mistake in coming this way, Mr. Greencoat. You will never have a chance to destroy a cucumber this summer. Aha! no you don't! Wriggle all you want to, but down you go!"

In amazement the boy watched Kingbird's dive and the sudden disappearance of the green caterpillar.

"You seem to pick out the insects that do mischief to the crops or the ones that are no good," remarked Peter.

"Right-o! I am very particular what I eat and I am very careful to hurt nothing that is of good in the world." Kingbird nodded his head. "As a matter of fact, I like berries better than anything else—blackberries are my favorites—but if I must live on a meat diet I choose the insects that the farmer doesn't like. I am a good friend to the farmer, you know, although sometimes it is hard to make him believe it.

"Come, wife, it is time we went to see how the babies are getting along. Besides, I need a bath in the brook. Goodby, boy, and good luck." Abruptly the Kingbirds flew off about their business.

Next—"Daylight Saving in Birdland."

TELL-TALE ARTERIES

Are your arteries showing a tendency towards becoming hard? Do you have any difficulty in breathing, heart palpitation or dizzy spells? Look out for high blood pressure! It's a dangerous condition that may cut life short.

Living at the pace we do today we put too great a strain upon our vital organs, especially the liver. The liver becoming "limp" or sluggish, fails to cleanse the blood of the poisons formed in food waste. Then a toxic condition of the whole system, with heart and blood vessels affected.

The liver occasionally needs a little help and there's nothing better for this, as doctors agree, than ox gall. Ox gall is a remarkable natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functioning so essential to real health. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists, and a few make a wonderful difference.

Free Test Take this ad to the druggist named below and he will give you a free sample of Dioxol tablets. Try them yourself. See the splendid, quick results. One trial of Dioxol and you will want a full package!

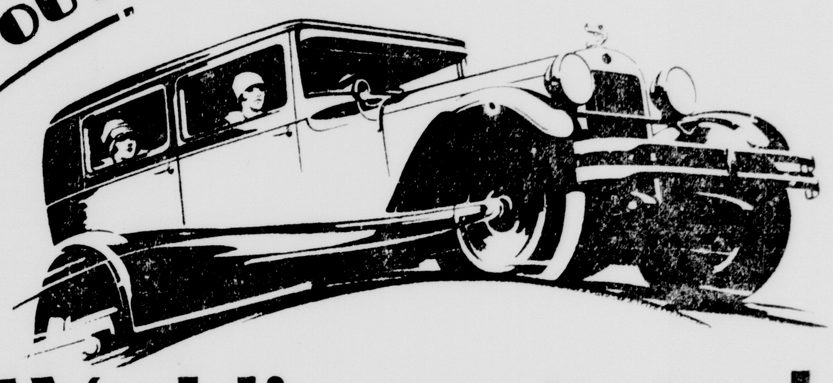
OUTSELLING ALL SIXES



World's greatest value by this Nationwide Verdict

In all 6-cylinder history there has never been such spectacular acceptance of any car as that which everywhere greets the new Essex Super-Six. It is outselling all other "Sixes", and its own previous records, by such outstanding margins as to leave no doubt of its leadership.

Such success can only reflect an accurate and unmistakable public appreciation that Essex is the World's Greatest Value—Altogether or Part by Part—Please Compare.

Heavy Expansion In Synthetic Gasoline Production Planned

German Chemical Cartel Plans Gasoline Output Of 10,000 Tons Monthly

Increased Activity In German Field May Cause Reduction In Imports

International News Service

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The German Chemical Cartel plans to produce synthetic gasoline at the rate of 10,000 tons monthly this year as an outside development in the international fight to control the oil and gas markets of that country.

Details of the fight for the German market were obtained at the Commerce Department today following a dispatch from American Consul Hamilton C. Clairborne at Frankfort on the Main.

American, Russian, British and other foreign corporations are competing with domestic producers for the tremendous volume of oil and gasoline demanded by the German market. The "I. G. Farbenindustrie", one of the important units of the Chemical Cartel, is extending its production.

Situation Complicated

The situation has been complicated by the establishment of the Spindolin Gesellschaft, which, according to department advices, is said to be the subsidiary of an important American independent oil company.

Despite the large synthetic production, which has not yet appreciably affected imports, owing to the rapidly increased mechanization of the country and the growing use of oil burning ships, have combined to boost consumption in the market.

Heavy consumption is reflected by the fact that in addition to the use of most of the synthetic oils and gas produced, Germany imported crude and refined gasoline in the volume of 590,000 metric tons last year, a gain of about 20 per cent from 1926.

The large synthetic production planned this year may have the influence of reducing imports. In the last few years the rate of increase of consumption has exceeded that of production, according to Commerce Department advices.

DEPEW LEAVES YALE $1,000,000

NEW YORK, April 19.—Chauncey M. Depew, railroad executive, orator and humorist, who died April 5, left $1,000,000—the largest single bequest of a total exceeding $2,200,000—to Yale University, his alma mater. The bequest carried no restrictions.

Filing of the will today of the former United States senator directed distribution of an estate the value of which is not yet known, between his school, relatives, servants and the village of Peekskill, where he was born nearly 94 years ago.

His native village receives $100,000 in trust for educational and other purposes.

Mr. Depew's second wife, May Palmer, receives $350,000.

The will is dated January 26, 1928.

To Die for Attack

For the first time in many years in Arkansas two men, Mike Wallace, top, and Frank Bethel, both of Monette, have been sentenced to death in the electric chair on June 1 for criminal assault. The two have been convicted of attacking a school teacher near Leachville, Ark. There have been only two other cases where white men have paid the supreme penalty for the offense in the history of the state.

The Giant Of The Universe

By S. S. MYERS

The most amazing star in the heavens is Betelgeuse, situated in the right shoulder of the constellation Orion. It is a sun of vast magnitude, having a diameter of 221,886,000 miles—221 million times larger than our sun. When we compare that with the diameter of the earth, which is only about 8,000 miles, we can begin to realize what a mere speck we are in the universe.

Betelgeuse is 1,000 times brighter than our sun, but it is cool for a sun; the outer layers are about as hot as an ordinary gas flame. Of course, the nearer the center the hotter it is. At the very center it is several million degrees centegrade, consequently it is nowhere either solid or liquid. At the center it is about as dense as the air we breathe. During the ages to come it will doubtless contract more and more and become hotter and hotter.

The light that comes to us from Betelgeuse left that star 150 years ago, traveling at the rate of 186,330 miles a second. In this connection it may be well to state that we never see any of the so-called fixed stars where they actually are at the time of observation because all are moving, some at the rate of 75 miles a second, others 100 miles, and a few at the tremendous speed of 700 miles a second. The light that comes to us from the north pole star left it 50 years ago. Consequently if we view the north star tonight we see it not where it is now, but where it was 50 years ago. When we look at Bethelgeuse we see it where it was 150 years ago.

Astronomers might calculate and point out the exact spot where that star is now, but they would have to overcome many difficulties. In the first place they would have to ascertain how swiftly and in what direction it is moving. That would not be difficult were it not that no star is moving in a straight line—there are no straight lines in the universe. Another thing, they would have to calculate not only the movement of the earth, but of the sun also, as our sun and with it the entire planetary system is rushing through space at the rate of more than 40,000 miles an hour—one million miles a day. Where was our planetary system when the light of Betelgeuse which we now see left that star 150 years ago?

With all of his space defying instruments, his scientific knowledge and reasoning powers the astronomer is unable to answer that question, for we know not whence we came or whither we are going. We only know that we are on the way.

Worst Flying Conditions Off Newfoundland Coast Declares Major Fitzmaurice

(International News Service)

LAKE ST. AGNES, Que., April 19. —"In all my experience I have never encountered such terrible flying conditions as exist off the coast of Newfoundland."

With this comment Major James E. Fitzmaurice expressed the opinion that he thought it quite possible that Captain Walter Hinchcliffe and the Hon. Elsie Mackay, who never were heard from after their attempt to span the Atlantic Ocean in a westward flight, might have been forced to land somewhere off the bleak coast of Labrador.

"Our own flight shows the difficulty of navigating a true course in the face of fogs and strong headwinds which prevail off the American continent," the Irish flier declared.

"Just as the Bremen was swept far north of its course, so might the ship of Hinchcliffe and Miss Mackay have been swept far from its route. If this conjecture is correct the English fliers were not as fortunate as we were in landing on an inhabited spot, close to communication lines."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

MENU HINT

Very often at this time of year the old potatoes are rather tasteless, and the new ones are too expensive for the average pocketbook. Mashing the old ones up lightly, with plenty of milk, butter, pepper and salt, will make it easier for you to finish up those left in your winter supply.

Today's Recipes.

Baked Eggs With Cheese—Toast circular pieces of bread from which a little of the centers has been removed. Place the pieces on a buttered dish, then break an egg and drop contents in the center of each. Cover with white sauce. Sprinkle grated cheese and buttered crumbs over this. Bake until eggs are set.

Stuffed Lamb Chops—Have your chops cut at least one and one-half inches thick. Make a pocket by splitting chops in halves to the bone. Make a bread stuffing, fill between layers and fasten together with toothpicks. Broil about ten minutes.

Orange Snowballs—Beat the yolks of three eggs and one cup of sugar together till very light, add three tablespoons of water, two tablespoons orange juice, grated rind of one-half lemon. Sift together one cup of flour, a little salt and two teaspoons baking powder, and add to the above. Beat the white of the eggs until stiff, and fold into the batter. Oil small cups, put a heaping tablespoon of the mixture in each, and steam for 30 minutes. Turn out, roll in powdered sugar, and serve wtih a lemon sauce. This makes six snowballs. If any are left over they may be re-steamed.

Last call for oysters this season, so we'll use them just once more. If we decide not to have them in this menu, for any reason, we can at least save the recipe and use it next year.

LUNCHEON
Oysters a la Creole Sally Lunn
Pineapple Salad Hot Tea
DINNER
Thin Cream of Potato Soup
Vegetable Platter with Mushrooms
Whole Wheat Bread
Currant Jelly
Roquefort Cheese Salad
Mocha Sponge Coffee

Today's Recipes.

Mushroom Vegetable Platter—In the center of the platter put a whole cauliflower, cooked tender but not to pieces, and seasoned with butter. Surround it with small whole beets; on one side put carrots, on the opposite side onion baked in a casserole with butter and milk; on the remaining sides, green beans, peas or parsnips. Place whole, broiled mushrooms around the edges, and use parsley or watercress for a garnish. If you cannot get them use sliced pickle.

Oyster a la Creole—Three ounces butter, one small onion, two tablespoons flour, one medium sized can of tomatoes, one pint oysters, one teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, one-half green pepper, cut in narrow strips. Melt half the butter, fry the onion, cut fine, gently, then rub in the flour and use the can of tomatoes, instead of milk to make a cream sauce. Melt the other half of the butter, put in the oysters which have been washed, drained and had the little hard circles of muscle removed, and cook gently until their beards curl. Season with salt, pepper and dash of cayenne, and the Worcestershire, and add to the tomato sauce. Last of all put in the green pepper, and serve on toast, preferably buttered. This will serve four generously.

Mocha Sponge—One cup strong coffee, three teaspoons gelatin, three eggs, three-fourths cup of sugar, four tablespoons cocoa, one teaspoon vanilla. Soak the gelatin in a quarter cup cold coffee for five minutes. Bring the remaining three-fourths cup of coffee to a boil and pour over gelatin. Separate the eggs, beat the whites dry and sift in sugar slowly, beating meanwhile. Beat yolks until foamy, and add vanilla. Stir cocoa into coffee gelatin mixture and then beat with egg beater to eliminate all lumps. Add this mixture to the yolks and pour into the whites, combine thoroughly but lightly. Pour into a chilled mold and set in the icebox. Serve with whipped or unwhipped cream. This dessert will set within an hour of the time it is made.

A. C. Smith, 41 West Broad St., Bethlehem, Pa., says in his own home paper, the Bethlehem Globe: "I now rise in the morning refreshed and feeling fine. Will gladly tell my experience by words or letter."

Getting up nights for bladder relief is nature's warning of danger ahead. Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as epsom salts do the bowels, driving out abnormal deposits, neutralizes excessive acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes getting up nights. Controversy Over Will Heard Today By Judge Chambers

Claimed That Later Will Of Violetta Osgood Than That Probated Has Been Found

Hearing on a petition revoke the probation of an alleged will of the late Violetta L. Osgood, on the grounds that a later will has been discovered, was held today before Judge Chambers. It is claimed that after the death of Violetta Osgood, which occurred on January 24th, 1928, a certain writing alleged to be her will, dated March 9, 1922, was probated and letters issued to Attorney Roy M. Jamison.

Afterwards another will dated December 12, 1922, was discovered among the effects of deceased. In both wills Mary Dickson was named as executor. She died, however, on November 25, 1927, before the death of Violetta Osgood. There were some material changes in the later will discovered which resulted in the present controversy.

Testimony was heard by Judge Chambers today as to the finding of the second will and as to the genuineness of the signature. Judge Chambers will hand down his decision later. Both wills left the estate to relatives.

Three Are Injured As Plane Crashes At Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 19. — Three men, a pilot and two passengers, are in St. Elizabeth's hospital here, suffering from severe burns received when the airplane in which they hopped off from Lansdowne Field crashed and was destroyed by flames Wednesday.

The men are: Arthur Clarkson, 719 Glacier avenue; Newton Bartram, 730 Glacier avenue, and W. A. Jones, 1040 Ridge avenue.

All three will recover hospital authorities say.

The men, with Pilot Jones in charge of the plane, where on their way to Cleveland to witness the opening American League baseball game.

Thirty-Nine Different Kinds Of Birds Identified Here

Little attention do we pay to the birds which come from the southland in early spring. We see them and probably mention the fact to some of our friends but soon we forget everything about it.

However there are some persons that do not do this but who do keep a record of the birds they have seen, where they have seen them and when.

A group of those who do remember all of te facts concerning the birds is to be found at the Senior high school. It is the biology class.

The students have a chart in the high school library and each morning when a bird is seen all of the facts concerning it are recorded.

To date 30 kinds of birds have been seen and identified this spring by the students. The name of the bird, the name of the student who saw it and where and when are marked on the chart.

Miss Susanna Young, librarian, declares that much interest is shown in the chart and each morning students come to read it in order to see whether or not any new birds have been seen.

Public Utility Investment Made Easy for Everybody

THAT it is an easy and simple transaction to invest in public utility securities is attested by the fact that men and women in all walks of life buy them every day—just like they buy other common commodities.

There is no mystery about it, no undue formality, no red tape—whether you pay in full or make your purchase on the budget payment plan.

More than 3 million customers have invested in the electric light and power industry. They know that it is a sound, steady, going business. They know it is profitable because they pay their bills regularly and know that every other user must do the same. They know that a fair rate of return on the money they invest in preferred stocks is assured and many make it a practice to regularly set aside a portion of their income for such investment.

Slippery Rock Church Will Be Dedicated On First Sunday In May

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa., April 19.—Plans are being completed for the dedication of the Presbyterian church at Slippery Rock on Sunday, May 6, and a large number of Butler folks are preparing to attend the ceremonies. The principal speaker at the dedicatory services will be Dr. Murdock McLeod of the Shadyside Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh.

Arrangements for the dedicatory week have all been completed and will open on May 2 with a union meeting of all of the churches. Thursday evening Harvey Gaul, organist and composer, will assist in the dedication of the pipe organ and will play a program.

Friday will be one of the most interesting services when all of the former pastors of the church have been asked to be present. The service on this occasion will be given over to the history and growth of the church since its founding. Rev. C. N. Moore of Zelienople, and Rev. Bowden of Parnassus have signified their intention of attending.

Special musical programs are being rehearsed, and the services of the dedicatory week will be marked with good music at all sessions.

If Jazz is dying, as they say, it certainly is making a terrible racket with its last gasps.

Powder Means Much to Me

By Edna Wallace Hopper

The average woman considers the actress hopelessly ahead of her in the art of enhancing natural beauty.

The reason for this advantage is that the actress make a business of attracting and she must "know how." It is her bread and butter.

Edna Wallace Hopper as she looks today

In the matter of powder, for instance, my forty-odd years on the stage have made me almost unbelievably exacting. I never considered the cost of my powder, so long as it pleased me.

After years of searching I found in France the powder that now adds the last touch to my careful toilette. It satisfies me because it has the one quality I have found in no other powder. That is, it blends so smoothly with the texture of my skin that my face never looks "made up" when I am offstage.

Because it lends such natural bloom I call it my Youth Powder. In the immense quantities now produced I am able to offer it to women at a low price.

If your skin requires a clinging powder I advise using my Youth Powder in the Heavy Type. It also can be had in the Light Type. Both have the same delicate elusive fragrance.

Get either type in Flesh, Brunette or White at any toilet counter.

COLLIERY WORKER SMOTHERS TO DEATH

(International News Service)

SCRANTON, Pa., April 19.—One man was smothered to death and six others narrowly escaped Wednesday when a dump on which they were working at the Johnson colliery of the Scranton Coal company, Dickson City, caved in.

John Serick, 50, of Dickson City, was caught by the huge tide of tons of clum and buried. Workmen from the colliery toiled for an hour before they recovered the body.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL

Dark Horse Is Likely At Both Conventions

By CHARLES P. STEWART.
Washington Correspondent for Central Press and New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, April 19—Wouldn't it be funny if after all the calculating the "experts" have done the Kansas City and Houston conventions should pick out a couple of presidential candidates who haven't been mentioned at all?

It may happen. It may happen on one side or the other anyway.

If so, won't there be a fine line of "alibis" from the political slickers who've tried to include in their reckonings the name of every man in the country they could think of as even a remote "possibility."

To all the candidates the threat in these coming conventions is that both parties are split too many ways.

Nearly every man thus far suggested is handicapped with one element of the voters or another, by a reputation as too wet or too dry, too agricultural or too industrial, too radical or too reactionary, too independent or too regular—too much of something to make him satisfactory all 'round.

About the only way either convention has to dodge this difficulty is through the choice of a standard bearer who has no reputation whatever.

The temptation will be strong at least upon the leaders at Kansas City and at Houston alike to encourage the selection of an exceedingly "dark horse."

It won't occur in either case if one man looms up overwhelmingly early in the game.

Neither will it occur at Kansas City regardless of all else if it appears that President Coolidge will yield to a draft. His party'll grab him with "Hosannas!" of thanksgiving—from everybody but the disappointed aspirants.

But in the event of a tie up at one convention as well as the other a "dark horse"—the darker the better—will be the easiest way out.

A "dark horse" shouldn't be confused with a "favorite son." A "favorite son's candidacy's openly announced in advance. He may know his chance is pretty slim or that his vote's only complimentary. Still ,he springs no surprise. His record's fairly well known or can be very readily dug up.

A genuine "dark horse' shouldn't HAVE a record.

History tells us that even after he was elected folks were still saying, "Who in heck is James K. Polk?" THAT'S being a "dark horse."

Of course the real candidates' personal followers—if they're loyal—won't lend themselves to any "dark horse' conspiracies. They'll stick by their various leaders as long as the latter stand any chance.

However it's to be remembered that the "managers' who actually RUN most conventions are a pretty cold-blooded lot.

All else being equal they'd rather create a president than have him create himself—the former type likelier to act as they dictate. The self-made kind doesn't owe 'em anything—consequently generally won't pay.

A "dark horse" is a fluke and flukes are only occasional.

The odds always are against 'em.

Nevertheless this is one of the times when it would be rather less surprising than usual to see one or two of them trotted out.

Wayne Kirker Goes On Visit And Starts North Hill Search

Failed To Tell Parents His Destination And Hunt Is Cause Of Excitement

When Wayne, the little three and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Kirker, the former being physicial director of the Y. M. C. A., could not be located sometime last night between 6 and 7 o'clock, it was remembered that he had said something about going to see his father at the Y. M. C. A. It had only been thought of as a temporary passing thought on his part.

The police were notified and inquiry made at the Y. M. C. A. The little fellow could not be located. Then began an intensive search throughout the north hill district by the police, neighbors and friends of the Kirker family. Probably a dozen automobiles were scouring the district, the fact that the boy was missing was flashed on the screen at the various theatres and a city wide search was in progress, when the little fellow was located at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Jackson, 2201 Highland avenue and Norwood avenue, a relative of his mother. This was about 10 o'clock.

It developed that the youngster for some reason determined to go to the Jackson home, about eight blocks north of his home. It had evidently taken him some time to get there. The Jackson family thought that the rest of the family would be there shortly but after some little time, when the others of the family failed to appear, they sought telephone communication with the Kirker home.

Owing to the search under way and the constant use of that telephone, it was some time before they could get the line and relieve the anxiety of the parents and others.

Mr. Kirker today stated that he wished to thank the aid given by the neighbors in the search for the missing boy, their efforts being very much appreciated by he and his wife.

House Of Commons Has Bill To Assist Small Pay Actors

FINE FOR CHILDREN!

Give them a good start in life, with happy smiles and healthy little bodies. Children need a mild corrective occasionally to regulate stomach and bowels. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a safe vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. They tone up and regulate the eliminative tract. Not a nasty cathartic or a habit-forming medicine, but a safe pleasant remedy for constipation, sour stomach, torpid liver, bad breath, and similar disorders. Dr. Edwards, a widely known family physician of Ohio, prescribed these tablets for many years in his own practice. Children from six years up are greatly helped by them and like to take them. Recognized by their olive color, Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets overcome those irritable spells that many children are subject to, keep their bodies in active healthy condition, skin clear and eyes bright with the light of perfect health.

Prof. F. L. Orth To Attend Meeting

Going To State College To Act On Commission Of Schools And Colleges

Prof. Frank L. Orth, principal of the senior high school, will leave for State College the latter part of this week to attend the meeting of the commission of secondary schools and colleges, of which he is a member and which is scheduled to convene on Monday and Tuesday, April 23 and 24, at the college town.

Mr. Orth states that this meeting is called to determine whether or not several high schools in this state should be placed on the list of accredited high schools.

About 150 high schools have applied for a place on the accredited list and each one must submit a report to the commission. If the report shows that the school measures up to a certain standard the commission then places it on the list.

Graduates from any high school in the state which has this rating will be accepted by practically every college and university without being required to take an examination.

Other members of the commission include Prof. Normer of the Shadyside academy of Pittsburgh, Prof. Buckner of the University of Pittsburgh, Dr. Hoffman, registrar of Pennsylvania State college; Dr. Miller, registrar of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, and Dr. E. D. Grizzell, professor of secondary education at the University of Pennsylvania, who is chairman of the group.

NOTE—It would be illegal to publish this if not true.

L. B. Round Talks Before Church Club

Gives Most Interesting Resume Of The Past And Future Of Electricity

An interesting meeting of the Men's club of Trinity Episcopal parish was held last evening in the guildroom of the church. There was a good attendance of the men of the parish.

L. B. Round, manager of the New Castle district of the Penn-Ohio system, was the speaker of the evening and gave a very interesting talk on the past, the present and the future of electricity in the lives of people of this world and particularly of the United States.

He explained the development of electricity in the past 50 years and then went into detail in explaining the difference in the methods of merchandising their product of the public utilities corporation of today as compared with that of 25 years ago. He called attention to the fact that there is a present day tendency to sell a service with the public utility product.

Mr. Round then explained the expansion planned in this district in the next few years and called attention especially to the fact that there would eventually be seven sub-stations surrounding this city, which would take care of the electric needs of the city. He also showed how electricity is the only thing used quite generally by the people that had actually decreased in cost in the past few years.

A discussion on the address followed and proved very interesting. Light refreshments were then served by the committee in charge.

The meeting in May will be the occasion of the annual election of officers and the annual banquet. Committee appointed last night for this event consisted of the following members: William Eroe, Jr., chairman; William Hewitt, H. G. Bloomer, Harry Shuttleworth and Lewis J. Lewis.

The members of the nominating committee are L. W. Strayer, Harry Clark and H. K. Bell.

Tennis Schedule For Westminster Season Complete

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 19. —Graduate Manager A. A. McDonald announced yesterday that Westminster will have 12 tennis matches on this season's schedule following approval of the card by the faculty committee on athletics.

The season will be opened on May 4 with a match at Duquesne, and will include two matches with Pitt, Thiel, Bethany, Allegheny and Geneva.

Westminster's tri-state conference champions for the last three years will endeavor to make it four in a row. With the same five men back that won the title last year and with a number of new men who show promise, it is thought that the United Presbyterians stand a fair chance of repeating.

The entire schedule follows: May 4, Duquesne at Pittsburgh; May 8, Geneva at New Wilmington; May 9, Thiel at Greenville; May 17, Allegheny at New Wilmington; May 21, Allegheny at Meadville; May 24, Bethany at Bethany; May 25, Pitt at Pittsburgh; May 28, Duquesne at New Wilmington; May 30, Geneva at Beaver Falls; June 2, Pitt at New Wilmington; June 4, Bethany at New Wilmington; June 5, Thiel at New Wilmington.

Former New Castle Druggist Badly Beaten In Store

Marion R. Hay, former New Castle druggist, was badly used up when attacked in his store at Butler yesterday. The Butler Eagle says: "Dutch" Mellinger went to Hay's drug store, conducted by M. R. Hay to purchase a bottle of rubbing alcohol.

Mr. Hay served Mellinger and as the purchase was being wrapped up Mellinger is alleged to have become obsessed with the idea that one bottle was given free with each one purchased and slipped a bottle into his pocket. Hay observed the action and objected whereupon Mellinger knocked Hay down. Despite the fact that Hay was giving away pounds in weight he pluckily defended his rubbing alcohol and returned to the fray.

Mellinger shoved his knee into Hay's anatomy and while the druggist was hors de combat Mellinger withdrew with is bottles from the field of action but left his hat behind.

How To Achieve Beauty

By MME. HELENE RUBINSTEIN
Noted Beauty Expert

Individuality In Hair Dressing

It is impossible to estimate the numberless types of beauty we have in the country. And yet each type should know herself; she should know all the fine points of grooming which skillfully draw into sharp relief that very individuality which makes for charm, and personality. Your hair and your clothes can do wonders for you. And of the two perhaps the arrangement of your hair is the more important.

Once a woman adopts a certain coiffeur arrangement she is apt to stick to it for quite some time. That is why the appearance of so many of our elderly ladies suffer under the radical changes of the modern mode. When bobbing became universal many a woman felt that she sacrificed her individuality to the shears!

Then came the shingle and the Eton crop and the wind blown bob and dozens of others, and with each of them, the arrangement which was most attractive to one women out of ten, made the other nine look like so many sheared sheep!

The new style says first, "Be yourself"—and second "Be attractive while you're about it."

But—and here Madame Mode crosses her fingers and looks both wise and grave. There is no law which requires of all women — one style of headdress! The fashion-law prescribes instead, personality, individuality, contrast! — and along that line — why, "everything goes," as one small boy says. Paris shakes her head in disapprobation of uniformity. Now for the styles themselves. One very pretty mode is for the shoulder bob. The hair is brushed back and allowed to fall in a natural frame around the face, and the ends for not more than two or three inches are curled in loose, soft ringlets. This is particularly lovely for the jeune fille type, an oval face and regular features.

A very modish headdress for the chic woman, the type who looks "stunning," never just "pretty," is as follows: The hair part is twisted instead of being a straight line. It curves nearer to the center of the head in front and winds down toward the back.

Large side waves bring the hair closely to the head. Sides are waved back over the ears and the ends are turned under.

The piquant type looks lovely with large soft ringlets all over the head, and she may wear a curling bang or not, which ever style is most becoming.

Some types call for satin smooth hair. Whatever type you are you can play up to it perfectly and be correct.

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"I suffered with rheumatism for a good many years. At times my joints would swell so, I couldn't walk. I tried almost everything. Went to Hot Springs . . . . then finally decided to try S.S.S. I took a course. In a short time the rheumatic pains entirely left me. I am now in perfect health, and want to add that I have tried all kinds of medicines but I think S.S.S. is the best."—Earl C. Improper Planting Causes Failure Of Young Forests

Only 8 Out Of 43 Plantations Furnished With Seedlings Proved Successful

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 19.—Improper planting is blamed for total failure of many large plantings of seedlings made in the early years of the reforestation movement, surveys made by the Department of Forests and Waters today indicated.

In a careful check of 43 plantations in central Pennsylvania counties it was found that 25 were complete failures, 10 could not be located and only eight were ranked as "outstanding successes". There were 105,225 seedlings distributed to the 43 plantations. Less than one-fourth of them are now growing into timber in accordance with the department's policies.

Out of the 25 complete failures 12 were found to have resulted from improper planting. Planting the tiny seedlings in places where they were later shaded out caused the death of the young trees before they were sufficiently strang to withstand conditions.

In only one instance were insects found responsible for failure of the plantation. Three were destroyed by forest fires and in two instances the plantings were not adaptable to site and soil.

Under present distribution plans of the department resident district foresters co-operate in the planting of the trees to reduce losses. Use of this system in recent years will, it is believed, result in a much larger percentage of successes.

LITERARY CONTEST

Since the position as victors for the literary contest remains a tie between Plaingrove and Bessemer, it was necessary to schedule a meet to work off the tie. Because of scarlet fever in the Plaingrove schools the date of the contest had to be postponed for several weeks. Tomorrow evening the first of the two contests will be held at Bessemer.

Bessemer contestants remain as before: declamation, Elizabeth Macklin; oration, Oliver Engle; essay, Mae Beale; debate, Harry, Howard and Helen Eakin. Alternate, Dennie Rodan. A beautiful silver cup is to be given to the final winners.

BANQUETS

During the last few days Bessemer people have been busy attending banquets.

Friday evening 90 people were served at the Junior-Senior banquet held in the high school auditorium. The banquet was said to be one of the most successful ever given by Bessemer students. A clever decorating scheme was carried out in Junior and Senior colors. The speakers of the evening were: toastmistress, Miss Smith; welcome to the Seniors, Helen Eakin; response of the Seniors, Tony Glassic; toast, "Seeing Ourselves As Others Should See Us," Audley Snyder; speech, Mr. Colton. An orchestra from Hillsville furnished excellent music.

Monday evening the Bessemer High school teachers attended the annual Lawrence county high school teachers' banquet at the Elks Club in New Castle. Due to the fact that last year the proprietors of the club had some difficulty in finding all of the table silver after the teachers' party, they though it best not to put out so much of their fine silver this year, so the teachers had to eat without forks. Some of the brainy professors became quite adept at balancing peas upon a knife.

The after-dinner speeches were especially good, because if any undesirable element entered into the talk the speaker was hooted to silence.

Bessemer is proud of the fact that one of the most valued prizes of the evening was won by one of her representatives, who proved herself to be an expert sculptress.

ACTIVITIES

The boys of the Radio Club have completed the setting up of their radio. They expect to have a regular radio entertainment some night this week.

OPERETTAS

Tuesday the people of Bessemer were again entertained by operettas put on by the grade children. The third and half of the fourth and fifth grades featured in this program.

"The Golden Whistle" was the operetta presented by the third grade, and "What Happened to Sally" was given by Miss Fair's and Miss Donaldson's rooms.

As usual a large audience attended and was duly delighted by the work presented.

BOY SCOUTS

Wednesday evening the Boy Scouts met in one of the rooms of the high school building for their regular weekly meeting. The topic for study this week was "Bandaging for First Aid".

The 24 boys who form the Bessemer troop make up a lively bunch and will, doubtlessly, have an interesting group during the summer months.

JOURNALISM CLUB

Throughout the year the Journalism Club has attended the outstanding plays in Youngstown and New Castle. Last evening they went to New Castle to see the picture, "Ramona".

This club has been a very active one in Bessemer High this year. Each week the members of the club write up the Bessemer High news for the New Castle News. At the present time they have written about 700 inches of news.

EXAMINATION

Six week exams are here again. For some pupils this means the last exams of the year, but for the majority there will be one more set.

The fact that examinations are here reminds us that there are only six more weeks left. In that six weeks every bit of work and fun will have to be finished, so it will, in deed, be a busy time.

TOWN MEETING

Thursday evening there is to be a "safety meeting" in the Bessemer auditorium. A picture, "Magic Flame", is to be shown during the meeting. There will also be a speaker or two from the officials of the Bessemer cement and brick plants.

CHURCH PLAY

Have you heard the "Beantown Choir"? If you haven't you want to be sure to come and hear it next Wednesday evening at the high school auditorium.

The Ladies' Loyal Bible class has been practicing for weeks and rumors are out that the play is certain to be a good one. It is a two-hour play, full of laughs and excitement.

Costuming alone, will be well worth the price of admission. Part of the play will really be a style show of old-fashioned dresses. Several of the costumes shown were made 50 or 75 years ago.

Don't forget the date, April 25, at eight o'clock.

One reason why money makes a good lobbyist is because it talks; it doesn't merely howl.

Marriage gives man a liberal education, and even a little knowledge is expensive in the acquiring.

"FLAVOR ZONE" Cooking is better—because it's automatic

In cooking a roast, a well browned zone must first be formed on the outside, for it is from this savory crust that the flavor is drawn into the meat as it continues to cook.

The Westinghouse Flavor Zone Oven performs this browning operation, as it does the cooking operation, under full automatic control.

Westinghouse automatic time and temperature controls, plus the sealed heat principle of oven cookery, browns and cooks your roast to perfection without the slightest attention from you.

You put the meat, and other foods if you like, in the oven, make two simple adjustments and forget your cooking until dinner time. When you are ready to serve it, the roast is cooked with all the flavor and zest a roast can have—better than if you had spent tedious hours watching over it.

No other range, fuel or electric, performs first the browning and then the cooking operation under full automatic control.

Let us demonstrate this new and better cookery. Or if more convenient, phone or write us for our booklet "The Story of Flavor Zone Cooking."

Armour's Debt Will Be Cleared Up By Personal Holdings

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 19.—Ten million dollars will be advanced from the personal holdings of Mrs. Lolita Sheldon Armour and Mrs. Lolita Armour Mitchell, widow and daughter, respectively, of J. Ogden Armour, to meet obligations incurred by the late meat packer, it was learned Wednesday.

Out of this, Armour & Co., largest creditor of the late packer, may realize more than the approximate $18,-000,000 which it had advanced to the former chairman of the board of the company.

There will be turned over to the company 1,000,000 shares of Armour & Co. class B stock, more than 300 shares of class A stock and other holdings to make up the debt.

Seek Compromise In Flood Control

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 19.—While house Republican leaders were striving desperately to force a compromise on the Jones-Reid $325,000,000 flood control bill, spokesmen for the "irreconcilables" claimed enough votes on Wednesday to pass the measure over a presidential veto.

The poll, it was declared, revealed that 303 of the 435 members of the house are ready to assess all of the cost of flood control in the Mississippi valley on the federal government.

Meantime, a half dozen conferences were under way on the compromise proposals of President Coolidge. Rep. Madden (R) of Illinois, after meeting with Rep. Wilson (D) of Louisiana, Driver (D) of Arkansas and Whittington (D) of Mississippi, expressed hope that a common meeting ground can yet be found.

Too Many Men Of Ordinary Ability In Our Colleges

University President Says Plenty Of Room In Professions For Leaders

(International News Service)

BETHLEHEM, Pa., April 19.—Dr. Charles R. Richards, president of Lehigh University, believes that there are too many men of inferior or ordinary ability in the colleges of this country.

Dr. Richards made known this belief here recently and supported his statement by referring to the fact that college graduates comprise less than one per cent of the population. He added that this over-supply of ordinary men in no way affected the opportunity that awaits young men of ability and those who have the qualities of leadership.

The university head also said that the professions were over-crowded with men of little ability, but that the man who has the initiative and a willingness to work may be expected to make a success in any profession and the man of high ability may expect to achieve distinction.

Dr. Richards said that it was becoming increasingly difficult for a man without a college education to attain distinction. He attributed this to the fact that the training received in college affords the opportunity for accumulation of specialized knowledge and the application of such knowledge to the affairs of life.

Feels Stronger And Better In Every Respect

Lady Credits Her Husband's New Found Health To Famous Ten Herbs.

"My husband, Mr. Lyle P. Wiley, was in such poor health that he had not worked for two years," was the statement of Mrs. Addie L. Wiley, 201

MRS. ADDIE L. WILEY

Cremo Street, North Side, Pittsburgh, Pa., to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily demonstrating the popular new herbal compound, Ten Herbs. "He read about your medicine in the newspapers, and decided to try it, with the result that now he feels stronger and better in every respect—in fact, he has returned to work," Mrs. Wiley continued.

"Before taking Ten Herbs, he suffered with indigestion and had poor appetite. Gas bothered his heart terribly. He bloated and had pains at night. He was constipated, and his liver was in such bad condition that he had dizzy spells and lacked energy. There were such awful pains in his back that he could not turn in bed while lying on his back, and he had to arise three or four times at night. He got very weak and run-down. He lost weight, and got so nervous that he could not sleep. His feet and hands were cold, from poor circulation.

"The third bottle of Ten Herbs made him look better and feel more like himself. His appetite has improved, and he has good digestion. There is no more gas or bloating. Constipation has been relieved. He does not have to arise at night, and the pains are gone from his back. His kidneys seem to be working properly. He is free of dizzy spells and has more ambition. His nerves are stronger and he gets a good night's sleep. He is gaining in weight, and feels so fine that he does not hesitate to recommend Ten Herbs to the public."

The wonderful herbal ingredients in Ten Herbs benefit and invigorate the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. This new compound is a splendid spring tonic, as it gives the entire system a thorough cleansing.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 19.—Track practice for the college town high school team will start next Monday on the upper field according to the announcement made by Coach Wiggins here today.

With about the same personnel that started on last year's team reporting for the spring sport again this year, it is expected that the local school will turn out a team that may capture the county class A championship.

However, there will be difficulty in whipping into shape a local team to retain the class B championship which the school now has, most of the class B men having moved up into the class A group.

It is expected that such men as Herriott, Hutchison, Eagleson, Neal, Newton, and Patterson will make good on the team.

The president of the W. C. T. U. organization of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Ella M. George, will speak here tomorrow in the auditorium of the United Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock p. m.

The local organization of the W. C. T. U. has extended an invitation to all the ladies and gentlemen of the town to be present to hear Mrs. George.

Yesterday afternoon the local Menders club met at the Hillside Dormitory of Westminster college with Mrs. C. B. Robertson, Dean of Women of Westminster, acting as hostess.

This afternoon, Mrs. A. A. McDonald entertained the women of the local Casserole club at its regular bimonthly meeting. The new and unique arrangement of the hostess' entertainment at the meeting excited the favorable comment of the members.

At the regular meeting of the local scout troopthis week, Edward Brown, assistant scoutmaster, took charge in the absence of Jack Hulme. Scout William Thompson passed two merit badge tests, Cooking and Firebuilding, in the course of the meeting.

Most of the time of the meeting was spent in training for the Camporee contest in which the local troop has entered. The assistant scoutmaster gave some valuable pointers to the boys with reference to their carriage in this contest.

Murdered Man Is Found In Canal

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., April 19.—The body of William H. Dunstan, missing from his home here since Saturday night, was found in a canal near Uhlertown, about 13 miles north of this place, by state police, led there by Calvin E. James said that Dunstan had posed as a prohibition agent, and for some time had been collecting "hush" money from liquor law violators in and around Doylestown. The slayers planned the shooting in retaliation for his extortion demands and after killing him, buried the body in a lonely spot, police were told.

Airport Plans Completed At Meeting Here

McKim Farm Has Been Secured; Tract Of 169 Acres For Landing Field

Most Of Stock In Corporation Has Been Sold Locally, Is Announced

ELLWOOD CITY, April 19—At a meeting of the Ellwood Aircraft corporation, which took place Wednesday evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, 15 members were present, and completed plans for the establishment of an airport here, and applied to the state for a charter. The secretary of state has notified the corporation's charter attorney that the name is all right.

A field containing 169 acres has been secured from the McKim heirs. It is situated along the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at North Sewickley. This will allow the airport a flying field of 100 acres of land with 1½ miles of runway, large anough to accommodate any type of flying machine flown today.

Most of the stock in the corporation has been sold, and the balance will be disposed of immediately. A large hangar will be erected on the property and a plane has been ordered from a concern in Lansing, Mich. The plane is expected to be ready to bring here in two weeks, and every effort is being made to speed up operations on the field in the way of hangar and other buildings, so as to have a first class flying field. W. H. Thomas, an aviator of considerable experience, and his mechanic will leave in about two weeks for Michigan to fly the plane back.

The field will then be operated as a passenger station and instructions in flying will be given.

Wierd Accident On Ninth Street

Truck Parked With Engine Running Climbs Curb, Injuring Child Seriously

Driver Being Held In Station Without Bail Pending Investigation Of Accident

ELLWOOD CITY, April 19.—About 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon one of Solomons' Dry Cleaning trucks, which was parked against the curb on Ninth street, with the engine running, in some way started to move, climbed the curb and struck the seven-year-old daughter of Cosmo Rabadido, who was playing on the sidewalk.

The child was rushed to the hospital, where it is said that her condition is serious, although no bones were broken.

The run-away truck careened down the hill, narrowly missing a moving machine on Lawrence avenue, and finally stopped when it crashed into a parked car near the Turner-Swartz garage.

Officer Chasey, who was within half a block of the scene, took charge and informed the astonished driver, D. L. Jones, what had happened. The driver was soliciting cleaning business and knew nothing of the peculiar mishap. The truck was badly damaged.

The accident was of such a nature that the police finally decided to hold the driver until an investigation of the child's injuries could be made. He will be brought up for hearing later.

Local Club Aids In State Safety Campaign Drive

ELLWOOD CITY, April 19.—The Ellwood City Motor Club is taking an active stand in the statewide "save a life" campaign which is being waged all this month.

Cars are being inspected and a number of garages in the city have received official appointments as inspection stations. Any other garages wishing to affiliate in this move may do so by applying to Harrisburg for a license.

The garages will test free of charge brakes, headlights and windshield wipers. At the conclusion of the inspection a car is pronounced O. K. by a shield which is placed on the windshield. The various state patrolmen are equipped with red cards to give to motorists not carrying the shield on their windshields. The campaign carries the hearty endorsement of Governor John Fisher and will be a great step toward alleviation of accidents on highways and streets.

BRITISH WAR VET SILENT AS HE FACES DEATH TRIAL IN LOVE TANGLE SLAYING

Albert V. Westgate, Mrs. Lottie Adams, spot where body was found near Winnipeg, Canada, and Mrs. Adams' Winnipeg home.

By E. E. KELLEHER.
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

WINNIPEG, Man., Can., April 19.—Western Canadian police are puzzled over a strange love tragedy which has enmeshed Albert Victor Westgate, war veteran, soldier of fortune, private chauffeur and son of a wealthy English industrialist. This quiet 32-year-old Briton is brooding in his cell in the provincial jail here awaiting trial for the murder of Mrs. Lottie Adams, pretty 30-year-old wife of a department store detective.

The battered body of the attractive suburban housewife was found in a ditch beside a popular auto drive after she had been missing 12 days and a country-wide search had been made for her. When pulled from her snow grave the woman's scanty clothes were found frozen around her neck, indicating that she had been dragged by the feet into the ditch, probably from an auto.

Arrested in Hospital.

That same day Westgate was arrested in a Winnipeg hospital where he had been confined for a week suffering from stomach trouble and loss of memory. Records show that he had never fully recovered from his war service and that he had been under the periodic care of doctors for four years.

But the pathetic love tangle which brought death to the vivacious suburban woman and the shadow of the gallows to the cultivated Englishman may never be known—unless Westgate talks.

"Silent" Westgate, as he was known among his associates, was also a paradox even to his friends. Intimates he had none, but it is known that before the war he and the murdered woman were pals. Five years ago found both married—but to different persons.

Within the past two years Mrs. Adams had become estranged from her husband friends say and she resumed her friendly relations with Westgate.

Renewed Friendship.

The pair however guarded their movements and though they were often seen together no one seemed to know what they were doing or where they were going. Mrs. Adams' husband knew of his wife's friendship for the private chauffeur and did not raise any strenuous objections.

Reconstructing the case police say that Westgate borrowed a friend's car and took Mrs. Adams for a drive on the morning she disappeared. He is alleged to have shot the woman dead in the machine and dragged the body to a ditch. All the weapons have been found.

Learning of his son's predicament, his father cabled rom Canterbury England retaining a law firm for Westgate's defense.

As for "Silent" Westgate himself he is taking no active interest in his case but moodily passes the hours living up to his name.

Euclid Avenue Man Is Assembling Plane; Plans To Fly Soon

P. Ernest Tieche, 125 Euclid avenue, who gained fame some years ago by being one of the first persons in this district who risked his life by riding on a motorcycle, is not content with allowing that to be his ultimate claim to fame, in spite of the fact that he is 56 years of age, and he is now preparing to take to the air.

The fact is that like the "Ancient Mariner", Mr. Tieche, who is one of the finest carpenters and workers in wood in the city, believes that a man is never too old to learn or do something. And he has decided that he will be the first individual to take to flying an airplane in this city, just for pastime; in other words, make use of an airplane for pleasure as others do their automobiles.

He has just received his new plane costing more than $4,000 from the government field at San Antonio, Texas, and is now engaged in assembling it. It will not only be the first plane used for private pleasure in the city, but it is also the biggest plane owned in the city at the present time.

It is a biplane with a wingspread of 46 feet. It has a rotary motor, or rather, to tell the truth, has two motors. A small one of 36 horsepower, which he will install first while learning to fly, and one of 160 horsepower, which he will install when he has learned the art of flying. The larger motor has nine cylinders. The engine is air cooled.

It is a brand new army plane and has never been used. It will carry passengers.

Questioned as to where he planned to fly it, Mr. Tieche stated today that he does not require the big field such as the proposed local airports. He can get it o the air, he states, in 30 feet from the starting point. He intimates that he will do his flying from his home property.

There will be considerable interest in this private pleasure flying of Mr. Tieche. From the success that he made in the operation of one of the first motorcycles, there is little doubt but that he will fly his biplane.

WASHINGTON, Pa., April 19.—Nine alleged members of the "save the union" movement were under arrest here today and warrants had been issued for six more as a result of a demonstration at the P. & W. mine of the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal company at Avella, Monday.

Five of the alleged leaders were arrested yesterday on charges of conspiracy, inciting to riot and unlawful assembly. In default of $1,000 bail they were committed to the county jail by Alderman J. F. Carmichael to await hearings April 24.

Nothing worries some people more than the fear of getting down and out and having to work for a living.

The Story Of The "Cow Country"—Part VIII

WINTER BROUGHT FRESH HARDSHIPS TO THE COWBOY AND HIS CHARGES. WHEN THE WEATHER BECAME SEVERE THE CATTLE WEPE DRIVEN TO SHELTERED SPOTS AND THE COWBOYS WENT INTO WINTER QUARTERS NEAR THEIR HERDS IN DUGOUTS AND SOD HOVELS. MANY CATTLEMEN DROVE THEIR ANIMALS SOUTH TO TEXAS FOR THE WINTER.

IN THE SPRING CAME THE GREAT "ROUND-UP". THE VARIOUS "OUTFITS" UNITED TO DRIVE THE HERDS FROM THE RANGE INTO INCLOSURES WHERE THE COWS WITH CALVES WERE SEPARATED, OR "CUT OUT", FROM THE REST OF THE "BUNCH".

THEN FOLLOWED THE BRANDING OF THE CALVES, EACH WITH ITS MOTHER'S MARK, THE RETURNING OF "STRAYS" TO THEIR PROPER OWNERS, AND THE DIVISION OF MAVERICKS (UNMARKED "STRAYS"). IT WAS THE BUSIEST TIME IN THE YEAR FOR THE COWBOY.

THERE WAS USUALLY KEEN RIVALRY BETWEEN THE "OUTFITS" COLLABORATING IN THE ROUND-UP AND IN THEIR LEISURE MOMENTS THE COWPUNCHERS STAGED CONTESTS IN "BRONCHO-BUSTING", SHOOTING AND ROPING.

TOMORROW—COW TOWNS.

Pirates Open Season At Forbes Field Today

Cardinals To Be Opponents

Manager Bush To Send Hill To Mound Opposing Frankhouse For Cards

EXPECT 35,000 TO WITNESS OPENER

International News Service.

PITTSBURGH April 19.—Pittsburgh forgot steel, politics and coal strikes today while 35,000 fans prepared to pack Forbes field this afternoon to welcome the Pirates in their opening home game with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The day was fair and cool with no hint of rain.

Bill McKechnie, former Pirate manager, brought his Cardinals here yesterday and plans to use a Pennsylvanian, Fred Frankhouse of Port Royal, Pa., on the mound for the opener. He will hold Wee Willie Sherdell in reserve, with O'Farrell behind the bat while Donie Bush's hopes will be pinned on the bespectacled Carmen Hill, with Gooch catching.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Executing the standing-sitting-standing dive into the field of statistics from a very difficult angle the writer discovered today that, up to and including the moment Tris Speaker has been paying off his $30,000 investment to Connie Mack in pfennings, which I understand to be the Austrian word for nothing or somewhat less.

Speaker Gets Hit.

It was pleasing to note that Tris blew himself to a base hit against Washington yesterday otherwise he would be hitting a sung fitting six and seven-eighths. If you insist upon being unpleasant about it the unofficial figure is .111. It was only a week ago that the intelligentsia delivered itself of the pronouncement that Speaker would be a big help to the Athletics this season.

Meantime Ty Cobb the other $30,000 investment in Philadelphia, has found it almost impossible to average more than two hits a game. He was hitting a mere .412 in the unofficial lists today.

It was only a week ago that the intelligentsia delivered itself of the dictum that the society for the prevention of cruelty to spectators ought to have Ty abated as a public nuisance or something.

Gehrig Hits Timely.

April form of course is something less permanent than April sunburn and anyway the prize exhibits of the national pastime have had their averages in their playing tag with Speaker's not Cobb's. In fact only three of them, exclusive of Ty are hitting above .300 today. They are Paul Waner who is clocked at .350; Rogers Hornsby who barely managed to rise above the dead line by getting two hits yesterday and Lou Gehrig who is running wild after a base hit famine in the south. His average today, .471 tops the field of prize exhibits by a two-thirds majority.

Some of the exhibits as a matter of fact may have to be moved off the midway altogether to a concession well back with the canned spinach and the lady who won the last hog calling contest. Harry Heilmann 1927 batting champion in the American league is trundling along at .233 Bob Fothergill, third in the same contest, was obliging with a natty .190 when they lifted him tenderly out of the Detroit line up several days ago. Robert was reported as resting uneasily today. The best his temporary successor, Easterling has been able to do is six hits out of his first eight times up.

It can't be said either, that Kiki Cuyler has got around yet to the matter of making Barney Dreyfuss weep bitterly in his beard. Cuyler lifted his average from .250 to .267 yesterday. And what of George Ruth alias Herman, the boy friend himself? Well, George or Herman or both, is neither depressing nor exhilirating his dear public. His average today is .286 and not a home run to date.

It has remained for Gehrig and Bob Meusel to take the early play away from George. Meusel is away running with a mark of .529 he being one of the few who are representatively placed in the first five. Joe Sewell at .467 is another. Likewise Frankie Frisch, among the National leaguers is not too far above his heat at .476.

However this is all very interesting without being the least important. With only a few games played to date a couple of extra hits or a couple of extra times at bat this afternoon can make a champ or a chump out of anybody.

Pennsylvanian To Battle On Coast

International News Service.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., April 19.—Lew Chester, Pennsylvania middleweight, and Bert Colima, Whittier, Calif., Mexican battler, will enter the ring here tomorrow night on even terms.

Chester is showing up so well in his workout that he is conceded a cinch to hold his own, at least, against the flashy Mexican.

Twelve Years Is Long Time To Wait But Fame Finds Carmen Hill At Last

By JACK SORDS

In the spring of 1915 the folk of Corey, Pa., became mildly excited about a stripling youth who was pitching great guns for his high school team.

Young Carmen Hill had the makings of a great baseball pitcher, said those who watched the kid mow down the boy batters who faced him. His fame spread until it reached the ears of Barney Dreyfus' Pittsburgh scouts.

Hill was taken on by the Pirates when they trekked south, but he couldn't show enough and they farmed him out to Youngstown, O. He was recalled in 1916 and again made the trip south with the Buccaneers.

This time Hill hung around the Pirate camp until May, when he was shunted to Rochester, N. Y., where he began a long, disheartening career in the minors, broken by brief stabs at major league pitching.

It just seemed that Hill couldn't make good. The year 1917 found him in Birmingham, Ala., of the Southern League. He hurled ball for the Coal Barons until the league suspended activities because of the World War in 1918.

The war at an end Hill turned up at Kansas City and tried his wares in the American Association. There came another trial with Pittsburgh and another failure. He was sold to Indianapolis and once more found himself in the double A circuit.

The New York Giants pulled the aging minor leaguer up for a brief spell in the closing days of the 1922 campaign, but the following spring found Hill again doing duty for the Hoosier crew.

Hill was all but forgotten in the National League when the Pirates plunged into the hectic campaign of 1926. Pittsburgh was badly in need of another pitcher and in the scramble remembered Hill. He was purchased by his old owners for a reported price of $40,000. This time he bade goodbye for the last time to Indianapolis for he was destined to stick in big league company.

As the Pirates thundered to their second pennant in three years in 1927 Hill's fame rose to its highest point. He won 22 and lost 11 and was a great factor in pushing the Corsairs ahead of their scrappy National League foes.

Hill probably would have made the grade much sooner if a long siege of sickness, occurring at intervals, had not laid him low on several occasions. While with Indianapolis he was bothered a great deal by stomach trouble.

Hill is one of the few bespectacled pitchers ever to make good in the big time. He has worn glasses since his 14th birthday.

Three American Golfers Sail On Acquitania Today

International News Service.

NEW YORK, April 19. — Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen and "Wild Bill" Mehlhorn, leading American golf professionals, sailed for Europe early today on the Acquitania to compete in the British open championships. Tommy Armour, American and Canadian open champion, cancelled his sailing at the last minute.

Hagen, Sarazen and Mehlhorn constitute America's hope of retaining the honor won for the last two years by Bobby Jones, amateur champion. Jones is not competing this year.

To Organize Strong Team At Volant

(Special To The News)

VOLANT, April 19.—At a spirited meeting at Volant nearly 20 baseball players organized a team for the coming season. Glenn McCracken will pilot the team while Sam Winger will captain them on the field.

Baesball fans will remember a few years ago when Volant had one of the best ball teams in the county. This year looks very bright with many former artists of the diamond trying for places.

The local ball park is being trimmed into shape and the manager will begin this week to arrange a schedule.

The manager wishes to schedule games with such teams as Ellwood, Energy, Wampum, Pennsylvania railroad, Italian A. A., Edenburg, Bessemer and teams of such caliber.

The following players are asked to report for practice Monday evening: G. McCracken, L. McCracken, G. Bills, "Lefty" Miller, R. Boyd, W. Boyd, G. Potter, R. Steeve, W. Wilkin, P. Simpson, T. Turnbull, S. Winger, I. Sholler, R. Sholler, B. Cooper and Don Scott.

Spanish Racer Defeats Stutz

Hispano-Suiza Racer Has Apparently Won 24-Hour International Speed Race

AMERICAN CAR HAS MUCH TROUBLE

International News Service.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 19. — The Hispano-Suiza speedster imported from France today was conceded to have won the 24-hour International speed race for a purse of $25,000 at the Indianapolis speedway from a Stutz Black Hawk roadster that developed chronic engine trouble during the night.

At 6:30 a. m. today the French machine had travelled 1,225 miles since 1 p. m. Wednesday at the average rate of 71.24 miles per hour which broke the former track record for that distance held by a Stutz car with an average around 70 miles an hour. The Hispano-Suiza had gone around the speedway course 590 times. The time was 17 hours, 11 minutes and 41 seconds.

The Stutz car had completed 240 laps, a distance equivalent to about 600 miles, for an average of 35.02 miles per hour. The elapsed time was 17 hours, 7 minutes and 58 seconds.

Engine Trouble

The American car spent a total of 9 hours and 23 minutes in the pits because of engine troubles due to a cracked piston head, a broken connecting rod and a hole knocked in the crankcase race officials said.

"The Stutz hasn't a chance to win even if the French car goes out of the race permanently," one official said. "If the Stutz were able to maintain an average of 80 miles an hour for the remainder of the race and the Hispano-Suiza were eliminated from the race entirely, the Stutz could not win now."

The race was being continued, however, until 1 o'clock this afternoon. Motor fans expressed the opinion that because of the unfortunate trouble developed by the Stutz car another race may be arranged for with the Hispano-Suiza machine at some later date.

Plan To Extend Tech Spring Grid Activity

Fine, Cool Weather Causes Coaches To Tack Extra Week On Spring Drills

Howard Eyth, Former Mars High Star, Almost Sure Of Varsity Berth

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 19.—Unless Summer weather comes along to upset plans, Spring football practice will be extended from two weeks to three at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, according to a decision made by Assistant Coach Robert N. Waddell this week. The Tartan gridders are now in their second week of workouts.

The first few days of the spring sessions have made it more clear to followers of Carnegie sports that next year's eleven will be one of the best in the Institute's history unless some of the prospective stars fall by the wayside in their studies. With seven lettermen available from last season and with an unusually promising crop of freshmen coming up for varsity berths, Coach Waddell and his assistants Al Irwin and Paul Allison, are making no attempt to disguise their optimism.

Although the Carnegie mentors face the problem of filling four big holes in the line caused by the graduation this year of Anderson, Cowan, Cooper and English, there is plenty of excellent material in sight to take care of the replacements. Dreshar, freshman captain, is sure to clinch the berth as varsity center and thus release Mielziner to a guard position for which he is aptly fitted. The tackles and guards position will be well cared for, apparently, with Mielziner, Lovewell, Yerina, and Schmidt left from last year's varsity, and Schnupp, Highberger, Helmbold, Netherland, Krack, Rousch, and Lindsay, competent freshmen coming along satisfactorily in the Spring practice.

Eyth Is Promising

The availability of several capable wingmen is providing the coaches with no little cause for joy. Sweet, Shaughnessy and Kousman are left from the 1927 squad, and in Latham Flanagan, Rosenzweig, Stabnau and Potts, the 1928 squad will have a quartet of plebes who would be a credit to any varsity.

In the backfield, Captain Harpster, punter and passer extraordinary, is the only regular who can feel sure of his job next year. Although Letzelter, fullback, and Moorhead, halfback, were regulars last season, they will have to show their best ability in the Fall to retain their positions, with several freshmen threatening to replace them. Eyth, a brilliant halfback from Mars, Pa., whose work as a plebe marked him as the outstanding freshmen halfback in Western Pennsylvania, is sure of a place in the first-string backfield. Norris, a 220-pound fullback, as another youngster who may win first call as a regular when Head Coach Wally Steffen selects his eleven starters. Other excellent prospects among the backfield candidates are Stauffer, who will undoubtedly be groomed as understudy for Harpster; Kennedy, and Kerr, of the 1927 varsity squad, and Hilty, Thayer Flanagan, Traa, and Carlson, of the freshmen.

Mahonings Start Spring Training

Mahonings, Recently Organized Have Joined Lawrence County Twilight League

The Mahonings, a newly organized baseball team of the seventh ward, have been awarded a franchise in the Lawrence County Twilight league. The Mahonings have started their spring training.

All players desiring a tryout with the Mahonings will have to arrange with Manager S. S. Domenick, who will handle the reins of the team this season. The team will practice every evening until the opening of the loop on May 8.

The Mahonings would like to arrange a six or seven game exhibition list prior to the start of the season, and desire to meet the following teams: Ryantown, I. A. A., Energy, Hillsville, Colored Stars and Edenburg. For games call 2650-R and ask for Joseph Frigone between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock, or write to Joseph Frigone, 21 Lacock street, Mahoningtown, Pa.

Dempsey To Wait For Tom Heeney

International News Service.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Jack Dempsey, former world heavyweight champion, doesn't care to face Gene Tunney again, but will return to the ring next year to fight Tom Heeney if the New Zealander wins the title from Tunney, according to Promoter Tex Rickard.

Only the heart-leaves of the tobacco plant are good enough for OLD GOLD. That's why you can pick them in the dark.

"I have been an inveterate cigarette smoker for years and my interest in cigarettes not only induced me to make this blindfold test, but to make it three times in succession.

"Each time I selected the same cigarette—OLD GOLD.

"However, there was no other choice that I could honestly make. OLD GOLD was so superior and its delicacy of aroma, its rich, full flavor so entirely free from any hint of sting or burn that it immediately appealed to my taste.

"Since the test I have been smoking OLD GOLDS steadily and I find that they are the most satisfying cigarettes I have ever smoked."

W. T. Benda

How Test Was Made

Mr. Benda was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke. To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette. Mr. Benda was unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test. After smoking the four cigarettes, he was asked to designate by number his choice. He replied, "Number 4," which was OLD GOLD

SMOOTHER AND BETTER—NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

O'Doul's Hitting Is Aid To Giants

Frank "Lefty" O'Doul Crashes Two Homers As Giants Take Fall Out Of Phils

YANKS MAINTAIN RAPID STRIDE

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 19. — Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, who wasn't good enough to make the grade with the New York Yankees several years ago, is now a leading gate attraction in the camp of their rivals, the New York Giants. The California Irishman is the new idol of Gotham fans today as the result of his feat in hitting two mighty home runs yesterday, which gave the Giants a 5 to 1 victory over the Phillies and a strangle hold on the top rung of the National League ladder.

O'Doul, like Babe Ruth, was converted from a pitcher into an outfielder because of his hitting. And his fielding is brilliant enough to make any manager turn handsprings.

Six Boston errors and effective pitching by Dazzy Vance enabled Brooklyn to swamp the Braves, 10 to 5, and jump to second place.

Reds Defeat Cubs

No less than 46,000 fans packed Wrigley Field to see the Cubs lose their first home game to Cincinnati, 9 to 6. A home run by pinch hitter Earl Webb, his third of the season, enabled Chicago to overcome a four-run lead, but the Reds won in the ninth on George Kelly's double with two on. Pittsburgh and St. Louis were not scheduled.

The other American League teams are still waiting for the champion Yankees to crack. Although hit hard, Waite Hoyt pitched the New Yorkers to a 10 to 7 triumph over the Red Sox.

Cleveland continued its winning ways, beating the White Sox 7 to 1 in the Forest City inaugural. Joe Shaute curved the Sox to death while his mates pounded Adkins, Shreveport rookie.

The Athletics cemented their hold on last place by losing to Washington, 11 to 6. Grandpa John Picus Quinn was the victim. A homer by Foxx with two on failed to stem the tide.

The St. Louis Browns, slipping after a good start, disappointed the fans by losing their home inaugural to Detroit, 4 to 1. Ownie Carroll, Tiger hurler, flashed the form which once made him the best college pitcher in the country. Paul Easterling, Detroit rookie from Seattle who is leading the league in batting, hit the longest home run ever made at the park.

Hey Hey Heydler — By Feg Murray

Copyright, 1928, by Metropolitan Newspaper Service

John A. Heydler, president of the National League, chooses to run in 1928, very decidedly. Not that the prexy of the older circuit is up for nomination or election or anything like that, but he is very much on the job, and feels a very great responsibility that his pet, hobby, and life work, the National League of Professional Base Ball Clubs, shall get revenge on that young upstart, the American League, for the four straight defeats administered to the Pirates by the Yankees in the last world series.

Pirates again, Cardinals, Cubs, Giants—even the lowly Phils; Heydler plays no favorites, but is pulling for each and every one to have a good season, avoid scandals, give the fans a run for their money, and win the world's championship back to the older league. Mr. Heydler is a busy man these days, spending much more of his time at his office on West 40th street, New York City, than he does at his home in Garden City, Long Island, but later on he will get time for a little golf (he has made a hole in one) and, of course, to see many, many ball games.

Watching ball games, either as a spectator, umpire, or league official, is something that Heydler has been doing now for nearly forty years. He saw his first major league game from the windows of the Government printing offices in Washington in 1889.

Always interested in baseball, young Heydler umpired amateur games now and then, and, in 1895, filled in in a major league contest when Tim Keefe failed to show up. Later he was taken on as a regular. About 1903 he was appointed secretary to Harry Pulliam, president of the National League, and remained as secretary-treasurer until 1918, when he was unanimously elected to succeed Governor Tener as the boss of the older circuit. For ten years now he has been the fairest, most honest president the league has even had.

Personalities In Sport

William Harrison Dempsey was born at Manassa, Col., June 24, 1895. He was of Scotch-Irish-American extraction.

After working in mines he took to the road and bummed his way around the country until his fistic prowess brought him small sums as a prelim fighter.

Dempsey adopted the name Jack, and after a series of quick knockouts managed to knockout Fred Fulton, heavyweight contender, in 22 seconds.

This bout brought Dempsey a crack at Jess Willard's heavyweight crown, which he won in 1919 and held until 1926 when he was defeated on points by Gene Tunney. In a comeback attempt last September Dempsey failed to regain his crown and, early this year, announced his retirement from the ring.

Chicago Cubs of 1924 were the worst base stealers of all time. They were caught trying to steal 149 bases that year.

Joe Nagle, formerly a player on the Brooklyn and Cincinnati teams, is a Chicago lawyer now.

George Sisler made 257 base hits while playing first base for the St. Louis Browns in 1920. A record.

Wee Willie Keeler hits safely in 44 consecutive games in the season of 1897. This mark has never been equalled.

Eddie Roush has been in the big leagues 16 years, and in all that time he failed to hit .300 in but one season.

Buck Lai, the Chinese infielder who failed in an attempt to land a berth with the Giants, has joined the Jersey City Skeeters in the International league.

Sport Ritticisms
By BILL RITT

Prizefights have become slumber parties. The only thing most boxers of today pound is their own ear.

The gong is the sound for a quick clinch and a long snooze. The first one to snore gets the decision.

Few fighters are rude enough to give their opponents a hard blow. It might awaken him and result in hard feeling.

There was a time when fighters fought, but that was before they did all their road work running back and forth from the bank.

Mothers no longer scold their boys for sleeping late. They may be future ring champions indulging in a little practice.

——K. O. Phil Kaplan, middleweight, was born in 1902 at Newark, N. J.

——Clarence DeMar, running from Melrose, Mass., to Boston, Mass., won the marathon in two hours, 40 minutes, 22 1-5 seconds, 1927.

Now that people are being paid for sleeping in public, a lot of park bench warmers may soon be millionaires. They can hire out as snoring partners.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 19.—Resuming its sensational pace in early trading in the stock market today, Radio jumped 14 points in the first half hour to 183, completing a rise of 21 ponts since the fourth hour yesterday. Squeezing of the shorts on reports of $2.70 a share net earnings in the first quarter, with anywhere from $10 to $20 a share estimated for the full year 1928, provided the motive power behind this new "push."

The bulls resumed aggressive upward bidding of General Motors, Bethlehem Steel, New York Central and other speculative favorites.

General Motors, Chrysler, Hudson, Yellow Truck, Studebaker and other popular motor stocks forged ahead a point or two. High priced investment stocks of the better grade were lifted in the price scale New York Central was a favorite in the rails, and General Electric in the specialties.

After the first burst of speculative enthusiasm, however, stocks settled down to a slightly lower level of prices.

The call loan rate started the day at 4¾ per cent, against 4½ at Wednesday's close.

Stocks of steel and copper companies moved upward moderately in the second hour, with Anaconda leading the coppers in a 2-point rise to 68½.

Queen Marie Loses Out In Plan To Form Her Own "League Of Queens"

Queen Marie of Jugo Slavia. Queen Marie of Rumania. Queen Elizabeth of Greece (Upper). Princess Ileana of Rumania (Lower).

By WILSON WATERS
International Illustrated News Staff Correspondent.

Four queens! A good hand to hold—whether in poker or international politics.

That was the well-formulated plan of Queen Marie of Roumania until fate forced her to accept defeat.

Early in her married career as the consort of the late King Ferdinand, Marie of Roumania visualized her three baby daughters grown to womanhood as wives of Balkan kings.

The nightly bedtime tales she recited to her attentive wide-eyed children as they cuddled against her in the romantic tower of her Carpathian mountain palace, had the moral of peace—the happy time when there would no longer be terrible and costly wars.

The oldest child, Marie, fulfilled the first step in the royal plan when she was married to King Alexander of Yugoslavia.

Following closely came the love match that made Elizabeth, Queen Marie's second daughter, the royal mate of George II, king of Greece.

Success, it seemed, was to reward the plans of the Roumanian monarch. But one link was open, and one daughter—Illeana—the most beautiful of the three princesses, was coming of age to complete the chain of queens.

Greece, Yugoslavia and Roumania, the three most powerful of the Balkan states, were now united in matrimony by their rulers. Proud, indeed, and very happy was the beautiful queen-mother as she surveyed the "League of Queens" developing under her direction in eastern Europe's war-torn peninsula.

Diplomatic gossip began to unite the youngest Roumanian princess with Boris, the bachelor king of Bulgaria.

Denials came from the palace in Bucharest, but they were feeble in their tenor. It was assured, so European diplomats thought, that Illeana would marry Boris of Bulgaria, and so complete the royal hand of four Balkan queens—a mother and three daughters.

It was a brilliant plan to present as a means of promulgating peace in the Balkans. The League of Nations at Geneva watched with curious eyes the progress of Marie's royal matings.

But then, just as this League of Queens appeared to be reaching the perfection so keenly desired, old man fate stepped in to cause a royal crash that echoed over Europe.

A revolt occurred in Greece, civil war prevailed, and when the smoke had cleared away young King George and his Roumanian wife Elizabeth were on a boat steaming up the Black sea as exiles.

That was the first hitch. The second came when Boris of Bulgaria refused to give up his bachelor state. He made it plain that when he married, his bride would be of his own choice. Diplomacy, leagues and politics would not enter into the queeny selection. His marriage would be only for love.

As a last blow at the "League of Queens," King Ferdinand of Roumania died and his grandson, the infant King Machael, was raised to the throne.

Queen Marie herself became only a member of the Regency formed to act as the baby monarch's advisory council.

Of her three daughters, Illeana is still single, and Elizabeth remains in exile, an ex-queen. Only Marie retains her throne as the wife of the Yugoslavian ruler.

Thus only one of the four to make up Marie's League of Queens remains in power, and the dream of the Balkan queen fades into bitter disappointment.

FLOOD CONTROL BILL IS NEARING VOTE IN HOUSE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 19.—A double-barreled fight over the Jones-Reid $325,000,000 flood control bill was renewed in the house today, with members debating the bill on the floor while negotiations are being carried on outside the halls of congress for a compromise.

The bill is expected to reach a final vote on Saturday, with backers of the measure claiming an overwhelming majority.

Three distinct and contending forces were evolved from the long controversy over the question of whether the federal government shall assume the entire expense of flood control, a large portion, or place a very considerable portion of the cost on local communities.

Start Construction Of Boy Scout Cabin

Plan To Have Building Completed Before Jamboree Late In The Spring

That the new Boy Scout memorial cabin sponsored by the New Castle Rotary Club and erected in memory of the late Eagle Scout Charles McConnell, is now under way and will be completed in time for a dedication ceremony before the big state jamboree to be held at Camp Phillips late in the spring, is the statement made this morning by J. Lee Calahan, Boy Scout executive.

The contractors are making rapid progress on the building, it is stated. Work commenced but a few days ago. The cabin will be 20 by 30 feet, with a large porch on the front. It will be of rustic construction throughout. A large open fireplace will be one of the features of the cabin, while on the second story of the building bunks will be made for sleeping quarters. This will be used for winter hiking, as well as a staff building in the summer time.

A large millstone will be placed in the front yard of the cabin, on which a memorial tablet will be placed. The Boy Scouts of Lawrence county who so loved the late Eagle Scout, Charles McConnell, are anxiously awaiting the time when they can start beautifying the grounds which surround the cabin. Later in the season the Scout leaders' council plan to build a kitchen on the rear of the structure. The cabin will be fitted with electric lights and running water.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

They were eating dinner in a restaurant, a good restaurant it was, where the food is well cooked and served by pleasant waitresses. And there was nothing wrong about this young fellow and his wife eating down town, but it was amusing just a little.

If the young lady had been unable to cook there would have been a reason for it, but she was a domestic science instructor before this lad persuaded her to make a change. And I know that she can do a lot of tricks with food. But there they were in a down town restaurant, when she might have fed him food at home that would have been prepared even better.

It may have been that she had suggested eating down town just to give him a little contrast and make him appreciate the more what he got at home.

Here is a letter from a young lady who lives outside the city, and who is a stranger to this colyum and the conductor. But she reads the colyum it seems, and submits the following:

Rural Route 3,
New Castle, Pa., April 17, 1928.

Dear Mr. Richards:

When I was reading Tuesday evening's News I turned to your column (it's a colyum, dear lady) Roaming Around With Richards and read of the two young ladies taking a ride in the air. I am a young lady and a school teacher at that.

Monday evening I had a ride in a plane. It would be putting it mildly to say I enjoyed it. Flying was the most thrilling and interesting thing I have ever done. I am sure if I had known how very, very exciting it was I would have had a ride a long time ago.

Did I get my ride in time to get my name in your column?

MARJORIE THOMPSON.

The answer is yes. Being Leap Year one could hardly say less than that. And it just occurs to me that if enough sweet young things take up flying we might start another club. Something like Flying Flappers. One must be alliterative, you know.

Spring may have come some weeks ago, if the calendar is to be believed, but for Doc Parlette and Bill Nunn and Maurice McLure and the rest of that particular clan, spring comes on the day the Field club opens. And it opens on Tuesday, April 24. From that day on until sometime in October golf widows will be plentiful in this well known city.

Things I never expect to see. Creight Logan in knickerbockers. This form of dress is Creight's particular bete noir and his trousers have come to his shoe tops since the day he left short pants.

The police force will be putting on its spring outfit soon. Brass buttons and blue uniforms, with no puttees. Very doggy looking clothes.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

It was Sunday.

Pay Fines When Stronger Evidence Is Found Lacking

Dominick DeBoris and Joe Quaranta, both of Farrell, Pa., were apprehended last night in the South Side district, with three empty tin liquor containers in their machine. The arresting officers had reason to believe that they had captured a couple of bootleggers, because of the fact that they obtained about half an ounce of liquor from the cans but this was not sufficient evidence to take them to court, especially when the men arrested claimed to have found the cans and so they were fined $25 each on charges of disorderly conduct. The arresting officers were Richards, Letera and Thomas.

State Scholarship Exams On May 4

Frank L. Orth principal of the Senior high school has announced that the state scholarship examination for high schools will be given on Friday May 4.

The state of Pennsylvania will give one scholarship worth $400 a year to each county in the state. The winner will be determined by competitive measures.

Mr. Orth states that 14 seniors have already signified their intentions of taking the examination. All applicants will be required to take an examination in English and United States history and then may choose a third subject either in mathematics, science or language.

Students of the local school have won three or four of the previous scholarships.

Rabbi To Discuss Well Known Man

Friday evening, Rabbi J. B. Menkes of Temple Israel will use as his text "A Well Known Man About Town." The subject has excited some little interest and the probabilities are that the auditorium of Temple Israel will be crowded not alone with members of the congregation but with visitors. A social hour will follow.

On Saturday morning the usual weekly services will be held at 10:30. The Friday evening service will open at 8:00 o'clock.

HARRY M. LONG
Candidate for General Assembly from the New Castle District,

HARRY M. LONG
Candidate for General Assembly

offers to the voters of this city the experience of a Washington street business man, experience of a former tin worker, and the experience of a tax payer, who has been paying taxes since before he became of age.

In addition to this Mr. Long has had opportunity through travel to study conditions and methods of government in practically all parts of the United States and Europe.

This experience has qualified him to study questions of public import and to meet matters concerning the people, from the angle of a workman, and business man, and from the angle of one who has helped to maintain his City, County and State Government.

Mr. Long believes in the taxpayer getting full value for his dollar and that taxes should not be imposed in excess of the amount needed to carry on the government and to insure the welfare of the people.

In the conduct of his campaign, Mr. Long has allied himself with no special interests, cliques or factions, and, if nominated and elected will represent the entire City of New Castle and will be guided entirely by what he deems to be the best interest of the people of the State and his District.
